Contents

List of illustrations xiii
Notes on contributors xiv
Foreword xvi
JOHN ANDREAS OLSEN
Acknowledgements xix

Introduction 1
KJELL ENGELBREKT AND CHARLOTTE WAGNSSON

PART I
The law and politics of intervention 15

1 Able but not willing: a critical assessment of NATO's Libya intervention 17
JEFFREY H. MICHAELS

2 Why Libya? Security Council Resolution 1973 and the politics of justification 41
KJELL ENGELBREKT

3 A legal view on NATO's campaign in Libya 63
FREDRIK A. HOLST AND MARTIN D. FINK

PART II
The military campaign 101

4 Executing strategy from the air 103
ANDERS NYGREN

5 Naval assets: not just a tool for war 128
CHRISTIAN WOLLERT

6 Fragments of an army: three aspects of the Libya collapse 151
KARL SÖRENSON AND NIMA DAMIDEZ

PART III
Auxiliary measures and arrangements 169

7 Managing perceptions: strategic communication and the story of success in Libya 171
RIKKE BJERG JENSEN

8 Cloak and dagger in Libya: the Libyan Thuwar and the role of Allied Special Forces 195
MARCUS MOHLIN

9 Conclusion: lessons and consequences of Operation Unified Protector 221
ROBERT EGNELL

Select bibliography 236
Index 242