

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Life's Work: An Introduction, Review and Critique Katharyne Mitchell, Sallie A Marston and Cindi Katz	1
Education and the Making of the Modern (Trans)national Subject	27
1 Imagined Country: National Environmental Ideologies in School Geography Textbooks John Morgan	28
2 Indigenous Professionalization: Transnational Social Reproduction in the Andes Nina Laurie, Robert Andolina and Sarah Radcliffe	47
3 Producing the Future: Getting To Be British Jean Lave	75
Domesticity and Other Homely Spaces of Modernity	95
4 Domesticating Birth in the Hospital: "Family-Centered" Birth and the Emergence of "Homelike" Birthing Rooms Maria Fannin	96
5 Adolescent Latina Bodyspaces: Making Homegirls, Homebodies and Homeplaces Melissa Hyams	119
6 Of Fictional Cities and "Diasporic" Aesthetics Rosemary Marangoly George	141
Modern Migrants/Flexible Citizens: Cultural Constructions of Belonging and Alienation	163
7 Valuing Childcare: Troubles in Suburbia Geraldine Pratt	164
8 Toque una Ranchera, Por Favor Altha J Cravey	185
9 Human Smuggling, the Transnational Imaginary, and Everyday Geographies of the Nation-State Alison Mountz	203
Index	226