TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction ........................................ xiii
About the Apache People ........................... xiv
About Geronimo .................................... xix

The Teachings of Geronimo as a Boy ............. 1
1. "One Who Yawns": or Perceptions Change .......... 3
2. Learn to Fight a Tree ............................ 4
3. Expect to Survive ................................ 6
4. Be True to Apaches .............................. 7
5. Chiefs Foresee The Future ....................... 9

The Teachings of Geronimo as a Young Warrior .... 11
7. Treachery Is Dangerous .......................... 14
8. Trust Must Be Earned ............................ 15
9. Burn the Belongings of the Dead .................. 16
10. It's Hard To Persuade With a Twisted Tongue .... 18
11. Stand Out in the Tribe ........................... 19
12. Don't Kill the Emissary .......................... 20
13. Never Leave a Trail .............................. 21
14. You Must Be in Front to Lead
    a Battle and a Tribe ............................ 22
15. Every Chief Loses a Battle or Two ............... 24
16. Persistence Eventually Wins Battles ............. 26
17. You Have To Want To Be a Chief ................. 27
18. A Good Chief Is a Good Follower ............... 28
The Teachings of Geronimo as a Feared Warrior

23. Warriors Who Win Battles Become Chiefs
24. Creative Tactics Win Battles
25. Confidence Creates Followers
26. Small Things Can Save Your Life
27. Nineteen Against 5,000 Are Not Good Odds
28. Not Everyone Who Wears War Paint Is Fierce
29. Be Stoic in Negotiations
30. Mean Spiritedness Does Not Become a Chief
31. Tribes Are Stronger If They Band Together
32. Always Have an Exit Door in Your Wickiup
33. Chiefs Must Have Compelling Visions
34. Compelling Visions Must Have Conviction
35. Good Chiefs Are Responsible Chiefs
36. Smart Chiefs Recognize When the Army Changes Strategy
37. A Fierce Reputation Can Help Win Battles
38. Lies Beget Lies
39. Learn to Take Mountain Vacations
40. Provide Cover Fire for Your People
41. Be Leery of Traps
42. Extreme Measures Are Sometimes Necessary
43. Sometimes Chiefs Have to Make Imperfect Decisions
44. Hablas Espanol?
45. Beware of Peaches or “Friends” Who May Betray You
46. Shamans Trust Intuition
47. Good Chiefs Are Tough Coaches
48. Good Shamans Are Humble Shamans
49. Never Speak with Forked Tongue
50. Attack Is Sometimes the Best Strategy
51. Adapt or Die
52. Walk Among Your Tribe
53. Use Scouts
54. Study the Enemy
55. Know the Terrain or Die
56. Promotion Should Be Based on Performance on the Battlefield ............... 79
57. Chiefs Do Not Fear Failure ........................................... 80
58. Go to War to Win ....................................................... 80
59. A Wounded Soldier Is a Dangerous Enemy ............................. 81
60. Choose Your Warriors Well .......................................... 82
61. I Have No More Children for You Have Eaten Them All ......... 82
62. Survival Requires Endurance .......................................... 83
63. How 50 Enemies Grow to 5,000 ...................................... 85
64. Do Not Fight Too Many Battles At Once ................................ 87
65. Sometimes Surrender Is Necessary ...................................... 88

The Teachings of Geronimo from the Reservation ......................... 91
66. Lasting Negotiations Require Honor and Dignity ............................ 93
67. Tobacco Can Be "Improper" for More Than Just Unmarried Maidens .... 94
68. Tizwin Makes You Drunk, and a Drunk Can't Lead ......................... 95
69. Honor Other Warriors and Chiefs ................................ 96
70. "If It Was Wrong...I Alone Was To Blame" ............................... 98
71. If You Want Apaches to Follow, You Have to Involve Them in the Decision .... 99
72. Confront Your Enemy .................................................. 100
73. Reservation Life Is Unfulfilling ....................................... 101
74. Chieftains Should Avoid Special Privileges ............................... 102

The Teachings of Geronimo in His Last Years ............................. 103
75. There's a Difference Between the Wild West Shows and the Reservation .... 105
76. Know the Value of Your Autograph ................................... 107
77. A Young Chief Won't Earn $18.250 Per Hour .......................... 107
78. "I Promised To Come. I Am Here." ................................... 109
79. Curiosity May Have Killed the Mountain Lion, but It's Great for Leaders ... 110
80. When in the Land of the "White Eyes" Do As the "White Eyes" Do .......... 111
81. Lead to the End .......................................................... 112
82. Be a Chief to the Same Tribe for a Long Time ........................ 113
83. Send Smoke Signals ...................................................... 114

The Teachings of Geronimo and the Apache Way of Life .................... 115