

CONTENTS

Preface to the Third Edition	xi
1. Introduction	1
The Need for Attention to Research Synthesis	1
Goals and Premises of the Book	2
Definitions of Literature Reviews	3
Stages of Research Synthesis	4
Four Examples of Research Synthesis	9
Exercise	11
2. The Problem Formulation Stage	12
Definition of Variables in Social Science Research	13
Multiple Operations in Research Synthesis	15
Judging the Conceptual Relevance of Studies	20
Relations Between Different Concepts in Research Synthesis	21
Study-Generated and Synthesis-Generated Evidence	22
The Role of Past Syntheses	25
The Research Synthesis Coding Sheet	26
Validity Issues in Problem Formulation	37
Exercises	39
3. The Literature Search Stage	40
Population Distinctions in Social Science Research	41
Methods for Locating Studies	42
Informal Channels	43
Formal Channels	51
Secondary Channels	58
Conducting Searches of Reference Databases	62
Determining the Adequacy of Literature Searches	73
Validity Issues in Study Retrieval	75
Exercises	77

4. The Data Evaluation Stage	78
Evaluating Data in Social Science Research	78
Predispositions of the Synthesist	80
Judging Research Quality	81
Approaches to Categorizing Research Methods	84
Problems in Data Retrieval	90
Identifying Independent Comparisons	97
Validity Issues in Evaluating Research	102
Exercises	103
5. The Data Analysis Stage	104
Data Analysis Techniques in Social Science Research	104
Meta-Analysis	105
Synthesizing Main Effects and Interactions	110
Techniques for Combining Significance Levels of Independent Findings	115
Measuring Relationship Strength	125
Combining Effect Sizes Across Studies	137
Analyzing Variance in Effect Sizes Across Findings	143
Validity Issues in Data Analysis	155
Exercises	156
6. The Interpretation and Presentation Stage	157
Report Writing in Social Science Research	157
A Format for Research Synthesis Reports	158
The Substantive Interpretation of Effect Size	173
Validity Issues in Report Writing	180
Exercises	181
7. General Issues	182
Validity Issues Revisited	182
Feasibility and Cost	183
The Scientific Method and Disconfirmation	183
Creativity in Research Synthesis	184
Conclusion	184
