

CONTENTS

Preface xiv

CHAPTER 1

The Sociological Analysis of Sport in Society 1

The Pervasiveness of Sport 1

The Discipline of Sociology 2

Assumptions of the Sociological Perspective 3

Problems with the Sociological Perspective 5

Units of Sociological Analysis 5

Sociological Theories: Contrasting Ways to See and Understand Social Life 9

Sport As a Microcosm of Society 13

Common Characteristics of Sport and Society 13

Levels of Sport 15

Informal Sport 15

Organized Sport 15

Corporate Sport 16

Summary 16

Notes 18

CHAPTER 2

Social and Cultural Sources of the Rise of Sport in North America 20

Pre-Columbian and Colonial Traditions in North America 21

The Early Nineteenth Century: Takeoff of

Industrialization and Technology	22
Sport in the Early Nineteenth Century: Building a Framework for Modern Sport	22
The Technological Revolution and Sport	23
The Later Nineteenth Century: The Beginnings of Modern Society	25
The Later Nineteenth Century: The Rise of Modern Sport Forms	26
The Twentieth Century: The Modern World	35
The Twentieth Century: The Maturing of Modern Sport	35
Summary	41
Notes	42

CHAPTER 3

Sport and Societal Values 45

The American Value System	45
Success	46
Competition	46
The Valued Means to Achieve	47
Progress	48
Materialism	48
External Conformity	49
Societal Values and Sport	49
Competition and Success in Sport	50
The Valued Means to Achievement in Sport	52

CHAPTER 12

Sport, Social Stratification, and Social Mobility 267

Major Concepts 267

Dimensions of Inequality 268

Social Class and Sport 269

Adult Participation Preferences for Sports by Socioeconomic Status 269

Youth Sport Participation by Socioeconomic Status 270

Spectator Preferences for Sports by Socioeconomic Status 271

Segregation in Sports by Social Class 273

Social Mobility and Sport 275

Sport As a Mobility Escalator 275

Demythologizing the Social-Mobility-Through-Sport Hypothesis 277

Summary 282

Notes 283

CHAPTER 13

Racial-Ethnic Minorities and Sport 285

Racial-Ethnic Minorities: Some Definitions 285

Sports Participation among Racial-Ethnic Minorities 288

The History of African American Involvement in U.S. Sport 288

Latino Involvement in U.S. Sport 289

Asian American Involvement in U.S. Sport 291

Native American Involvement in U.S. Sport 291

The Effects of Globalization on Ethnic Diversity in U.S. Sport Participation 293

Black Dominance in Sport 294

Race-Linked Physical Differences 294

Race-Linked Cultural Differences 296

Social Structure Constraints 296

Racial Discrimination in Sport 298

Stacking 299

Rewards and Authority 301

Summary 304
Notes 305

CHAPTER 14

Gender in North American Sport: Continuity and Change 307

The Heritage of Gender Inequality in Sport 308

Social Sources of Gender Inequality in Sport 310

Parental Child-Rearing Practices and Gender Construction 310

The School and Gender Construction 311

The Mass Media and Gender Construction 312

Females Surmount Social Barriers to Participation in Sport 313

Negative Myths 313

Attitudes Toward Female Athletes 317

The Opportunity and Reward Structure for Females in Sport 317

From Boys-Only Youth Sports to

Opportunities for Both Sexes 318

Toward Gender Equity in High School Sports 318

Toward Gender Equity in Intercollegiate Sports 320

Men Rule in the Coaching and

Administration of Women's Sports 325

High School and College Women's

Coaching and Administration 325

Professional Coaches and Administrators 327

Coaching and Administration in U.S.

Olympic Organizations 328

Why Have Men Been Hired to Coach and

Administer Women's Sports? 328

Gender and Careers at the Top Levels of

Sport 328

Sport and Gender Identity of Males 331

Summary 333

Notes 334

The Impediments to Scholarly Achievement by College Athletes	119
Reform	124
The Administration of College Sports	124
Emphasizing the Education of Student-Athletes	124
Commitment to Athletes' Rights	125
Summary	126
Notes	126

CHAPTER 7

Social Problems and North American Sport: Violence, Substance Abuse, Eating Disorders, and Gambling 129

Violence in Sport: Is It Violence or Aggression? Confusion in the Literature	130
Theories About the Connection Between Violent Behavior and Sport	130
Aggression Theories and Research on Sports	132
Violence and North America	133
A History of Violence	134
A Contemporary Culture of Violence	135
Violence in North American Sport	135
Violent Behavior by Athletes As Part of the Game	136
Borderline Violence	137
Who or What Encourages Player Violence?	138
Violence Against Athletes	140
Violent Behavior by Athletes off the Field of Play	140
Why Do Male Athletes Assault Women?	142
Hazing: Athletes' Violence Against Teammates	143
Sports Fan Violence	145
Factors Associated with Fan Violence	146
Reducing Fan Violence	146
Postgame Sports Violence	147
Substance Abuse and Sport	147
The Scope of Substance Abuse in Sport	148

Substance Abuse Not New to Sports	149
Reasons for Substance Abuse Among Athletes	151
Eating Disorders in Sport	154
Gambling and Sports	155
Summary	157
Notes	159

CHAPTER 8

Sport and Religion 163

Religion and Society	164
Social Functions of Religion	164
The Relationship Between Religion and Sport	166
Primitive Societies	166
Ancient Greece	166
The Early Christian Church	166
The Reformation and the Rise of Protestantism	167
From the Seventeenth to the Twentieth Century	167
Twentieth-Century North America	168
Sport As Religion	169
Religion Uses Sport	171
Churches	171
Religious Leaders	172
Church Colleges and Universities	172
Religious Organizations and Sports	173
The Fellowship of Christian Athletes	173
Other Sports Evangelism Organizations
Missionary Work of Churches and Sport	174
Religious Evangelizing by Athletes and Coaches	174
The Promise Keepers: Sportianity, Gender, and Sexuality	175
Religion, Sport, and Social Issues	176
Value Orientations of Religion and Sport	176
The Protestant Ethic and Sports	176
Protestantism and Contemporary Sport	179
Sport Uses Religion	179
The Use of Prayer	180

BRIEF CONTENTS

1. The Sociological Analysis of Sport 1
2. Social and Cultural Sources of the Rise of Sport in North America 20
3. Sport and Societal Values 45
4. Children and Sport 58
5. Interscholastic Sport 90
6. Intercollegiate Sport 110
7. Social Problems and North American Sport: Violence, Substance Abuse, Eating Disorders, and Gambling 129
8. Sport and Religion 163
9. Sport and Politics 192
10. Sport and the Economy 210
11. Sport and the Mass Media 237
12. Sport, Social Stratification, and Social Mobility 267
13. Racial-Ethnic Minorities and Sport 285
14. Gender in North American Sport: Continuity and Change 307
15. Contemporary Trends and the Future of Sport in North America 338

Credits 369

Index 371

Progress in Sport 54
Materialism in Sport 54
External Conformity in Sport 55
Summary 56
Notes 56

CHAPTER 4

Children and Sport 58

Youth Sports Programs: Something for Everyone 58
The Rise of Youth Sports Programs: The Takeoff and Expansion of a New Form of Sport 60
Objectives of Youth Sports Programs: What Do Young Athletes Want? What Do Their Parents and Coaches Want? 60
Socialization and Sport: Involvement in Sport and Its Consequences 61
Socialization into Sport: Why Do Children Get Involved in Organized Sports? 62
Families 62
Parents 63
Siblings 64
Peers 64
Coaches 64
Schools 65
Mass Media 65
Participants 66
Socialization via Sport 66
Two Forms of Play 67
Development of Personal-Social Attributes Through Sport 72
Potential Psychosocial Problems of Youth Sports 74
Adult Intrusion in Youth Sports 74
Disruption of Education 79
Risk of Injury 80
The "Winning Is the Only Thing" Ethic 81
Sports Alternatives for the Young Athlete 82
Alternative Sports 83
Cooperative Games 83
Youth Sports Coaches 83
Bill of Rights for Young Athletes 84

Summary 85

Notes 87

CHAPTER 5

Interscholastic Sport 90

The Status of Sport in Secondary Schools 90

The Consequences of Sport for Schools,
Communities, and Individuals 92

The Consequences of Sport for the School 92

The Consequences of Sport for the Community 94

The Consequences of Sport for the Participant 94

Problems, Dilemmas, and Controversies 97

The Reinforcement of Gender Roles 97

Cheating 98

Autocratic Coaches 99

Excessive Pressures to Win 99

Elitism 100

Sport Specialization 100

Budget Shortfalls 100

Corporate High School Sport 101

Efforts to Reform High School Sports 102

Summary 107

Notes 108

CHAPTER 6

Intercollegiate Sport 110

College Sport As Big Business 111

The Consequences of a Money

Orientation in College Sports 113

A Contradiction: Athletes As Amateurs in a Big Business Environment 116

The NCAA and Student-Athletes 117

The Enforcement of "Amateurism" 117

The Restriction of Athletes' Rights 119

The Educational Performance of Student-
Athletes 119

Intellectual Preparation of Student-Athletes for College 119

Academic Performance 121

Graduation Rates 121

The Use of Magic 184
Magic and Its Uses in Sports 185
Summary 188
Notes 188

CHAPTER 9

Sport and Politics 192

The Political Uses of Sport 194
Sport As a Propaganda Vehicle 194
Sport and Nationalism 196
Sport As an Opiate of the Masses 199
*The Exploitation of Sport by
Politicians* 199
*Sport As a Vehicle of Change in
Society* 200
Sport As a Socializing Agent 201
The Political Olympics 202
Political Problems 202
A Proposal for Change 205
Summary 207
Notes 208

CHAPTER 10

Sport and the Economy 210

Who Benefits Economically from
Sports? 211
Professional Sport As a Business 215
Professional Sport As a Monopoly 215
*Public Subsidization of Professional Team
Franchises* 216
Ownership for Profit 219
The Relationship Between Owner and
Athlete 221
The Draft and the Reserve Clause 222
Free Agency 222
Salaries 228
*A Radical Question: Are Owners
Necessary?* 230
Amateur Sport As a Business 231
The Economics of Collegiate Sport 232
Summary 234
Notes 235

Sport and the Mass Media 237

- Social Roles of the Mass Media 237
 - Prominent and Subtle Roles of the Media* 237
- The Symbiosis of Mass Media and Sport 238
 - Linkages Between the Mass Media and Sport* 238
- Television: The Monster of the Sports World 241
 - Increasing TV Sports Coverage* 242
 - Economic Aspects of Televised Sports* 242
- Television's Influence on Sport 244
 - Increases in Sport Revenue* 244
 - Indirect Business Linkages Between Media and Sport* 245
 - Popularity Shifts* 245
 - Professional Sports Franchise Locations and the Media* 246
 - Intercollegiate Sport* 246
 - High School Sport* 247
 - Modifying Sports to Accommodate TV* 248
 - Television's Own Sports* 249
 - Televised Sport As a Mediated Event* 250
- The Impact of Sport on the Mass Media 252
 - Increased Sport in the Media* 252
 - Sport's Privileged Treatment by the Media* 253
 - Sports Consumers and the Mass Media* 253
 - Reproduction of Hegemonic Masculinity in Media Sport* 254
 - Media Sport and Gender Inequities* 255
 - Media Sport and Racial and Ethnic Inequities* 255
- Sports Journalism and the Mass Media 259
 - Sportscasters: Narrators of Mediated Sport* 260
 - Women Sport Journalists and Broadcasters* 262
 - Minority Sport Journalists and Broadcasters* 262
- Summary 263
- Notes 264

The Use of Magic 184
Magic and Its Uses in Sports 185
Summary 188
Notes 188

CHAPTER 9

Sport and Politics 192

The Political Uses of Sport 194
Sport As a Propaganda Vehicle 194
Sport and Nationalism 196
Sport As an Opiate of the Masses 199
*The Exploitation of Sport by
Politicians* 199
*Sport As a Vehicle of Change in
Society* 200
Sport As a Socializing Agent 201
The Political Olympics 202
Political Problems 202
A Proposal for Change 205
Summary 207
Notes 208

CHAPTER 10

Sport and the Economy 210

Who Benefits Economically from
Sports? 211
Professional Sport As a Business 215
Professional Sport As a Monopoly 215
*Public Subsidization of Professional Team
Franchises* 216
Ownership for Profit 219
The Relationship Between Owner and
Athlete 221
The Draft and the Reserve Clause 222
Free Agency 222
Salaries 228
*A Radical Question: Are Owners
Necessary?* 230
Amateur Sport As a Business 231
The Economics of Collegiate Sport 232
Summary 234
Notes 235

Sport and the Mass Media 237

- Social Roles of the Mass Media 237
Prominent and Subtle Roles of the Media 237
- The Symbiosis of Mass Media and Sport 238
Linkages Between the Mass Media and Sport 238
- Television: The Monster of the Sports World 241
Increasing TV Sports Coverage 242
Economic Aspects of Televised Sports 242
- Television's Influence on Sport 244
Increases in Sport Revenue 244
Indirect Business Linkages Between Media and Sport 245
Popularity Shifts 245
Professional Sports Franchise Locations and the Media 246
Intercollegiate Sport 246
High School Sport 247
Modifying Sports to Accommodate TV 248
Television's Own Sports 249
Televised Sport As a Mediated Event 250
- The Impact of Sport on the Mass Media 252
Increased Sport in the Media 252
Sport's Privileged Treatment by the Media 253
Sports Consumers and the Mass Media 253
Reproduction of Hegemonic Masculinity in Media Sport 254
Media Sport and Gender Inequities 255
Media Sport and Racial and Ethnic Inequities 255
- Sports Journalism and the Mass Media 259
Sportscasters: Narrators of Mediated Sport 260
Women Sport Journalists and Broadcasters 262
Minority Sport Journalists and Broadcasters 262
- Summary 263
Notes 264

Contemporary Trends and the Future of Sport in North America 338

- Demographic Trends in North America 339
 - Population Composition* 339
 - Location of Population* 340
 - Population Trends and Sport* 341
- Dominating Forces in Our Lives: Work,
Technology, and Sporting Activities 343
 - An Information/Service North American
Society* 344
 - The Information/Service Workplace and Sporting Activities* 344
- A Future Society and Sport 346
 - Cerebral Sports of the Future* 346
 - Violent Sports of the Future* 347
 - Technology and Future Sport* 348
 - A Counterpoint to Technosports:
Ecosports* 350

Trends in the Economy and Future

Sports 353

The Future of Professional Sports 354

The Future of Televised Sports 354

Internet Technology and Sports Viewing 355

Video Technology and Sports Video Games 355

*Intercollegiate Athletics and the Future
356*

*Secondary School Sports and the Future
357*

Trends in Social Values and Future Sport 358

The Quest for Democracy and Equality 358

Trends in Sports Values 358

Summary 364

Notes 366

Credits 369

Index 371