

Contents

Introduction	1
My Political History	2
My Intellectual History.....	2
The Bottom Line.....	5
Who Are You?.....	6
How Can I Convince You?.....	8
Chapter 1 Life Is Not Fair, But People Can Be	11
Economic Justice — Should It Be a Goal?.....	11
Relevance of Determinism.....	14
Concepts of Justice.....	15
Rawls and Nozick—Contrasting Views of Justice	22
The Utilitarian View of Justice.....	25
Justice as an Emotional Response	26
Criminal Justice.....	27
Rectifying Life's Injustices.....	29
Something for Everyone, But More for Some— Justice and Reality Reconciled.....	33
Chapter 2 Are You Worthy? Current U.S. Welfare Programs	41
Current Public Assistance Programs in the United States.....	42
Negative Aspects of Current U.S. Public Assistance Programs.....	60
Summary	64
Chapter 3 The Market: Who Gets What, Why, and Whether	75
Alternatives to the Market.....	76
The Virtues of the Market.....	78
The Shortcomings of the Market.....	80
Long-Run Prospects for Capitalism	93
Current Welfare Interferences with the Market.....	94
The Benefits of the GAI to the Market.....	98
Summary	100
Chapter 4 Work—Who Needs It?	107
Work — What Is It?.....	107
Do People Need to Work?	113
Must Society Require That People Work?.....	114
Is Work Going to Be Available?.....	120
The Serendipitous Impact of Technological Development.....	121
A Note on Creating Jobs.....	122
Conclusion.....	123
Chapter 5 We Are What We Were	129
The Essence of the Argument.....	130

The Path to this Conclusion.....	131
Determinism.....	133
Implications of a Determinist View of Human Behavior.....	139
Conclusions.....	145
Chapter 6 Why the Guaranteed Adequate Income	153
The Basics of a Guaranteed Adequate Income.....	154
The "Sound Bite" Argument.....	154
What a Guaranteed Income Provides to Individuals	155
A Guaranteed Income Is Not Founded on a Right.....	158
The Social Dividend Argument	160
The Work Reduction Argument.....	162
A Guaranteed Income Is Conservative	163
Effective and Efficient.....	166
Conclusion.....	168
Appendix: Results of Negative Income Tax Experiments.....	169
Chapter 7 The History of Guaranteed Income
Plans.....	178
Speenhamland System.....	178
Edward Bellamy's Forward Look.....	178
British Proposals of the Rhys-Williams.....	179
Family Allowances	179
George Stigler's Brief Mention	179
Friedman Negative Income Tax.....	179
Schwartz Family Security Benefit	180
Tobin Plan	181
Lampman Plan.....	181
Theobald's Basic Economic Security	181
Family Assistance Plan	182
Credit Income Tax	182
George McGovern's 1972 Campaign Proposal	183
Able Grant	183
Allan Sheahan's Plan	184
Problems with Previous Plans.....	185
Appendix: Relative Price and Poverty Levels	186
Chapter 8 The Guaranteed Adequate Income
Proposal.....	190
The Nonnegotiables	190
The Negotiable Elements.....	195
The Mechanics of the Plan	197
The Cost.....	199
Funding the Program	199
Hypothetical Demonstrations.....	199

Phasing In.....	200
Chapter 9 Cost and Funding Calculations.....	204
The Total Potential Outlay.....	204
Projected Impact of the New System.....	208
Summary	219
Chapter 10 Final Thoughts.....	222
The Thought Process Leading to the GAI.....	222
How Much Is Enough?.....	224
Political Prospects.....	225
References.....	227
Index.....	229

LIST OF TABLES

Table 3.1 Selected Indicators of Income Distribution.....	85
Table 3.2 Impact of Varying Measures of Income on Income Distribution	87
Table 3.3 Number of Families Below the Poverty Level and Poverty Rate 1959-1992.....	88
Table 6.1 Probability of Employment.....	171
Table 7.1 Consumer Price Indices and Purchasing Power of the Dollar- Selected Years.....	186
Table 7.2 U.S. Government Poverty Levels-Selected Years.....	186
Table 9.1 1993 Income Tax Rates	206
Table 9.2 Effect of 1993 Tax Structure on Two Sample Taxpayers.....	206
Table 9.3 Flat Tax Equivalent of Current Income Taxes (Selected Family Situations).....	207
Table 9.4 Effects of GAI and Flat Tax on Two Sample Taxpayers	209
Table 9.5 Median and Mean Net Worth by Household Income Quintile	209
Table 9.6 Net Transfers Under the Proposed GAI/Flat Tax Structure	210
Table 9.7 Effective Tax Rates Under the Proposed GAI/Flat Tax Structure	212
Table 9.8 New Effective Tax Rates Minus Old Rates	213
Table 9.9 Comparison of Net Income Under Present Tax Structure with Net Income Under GAI/Flat Tax System	214
Table 9.10a Distribution of Incomes in the United States.....	215
Table 9.10b Distribution of Incomes in the United States.....	216
Table 9.11a Aggregate Transfers by Income Category	217
Table 9.11b Aggregate Transfers by Income Category	218