

Contents

| | |
|---------------|---|
| Preface | V |
|---------------|---|

Part One

On Max Weber's Contribution

Chapter 1

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Present Relevance of Max Weber's Wertrationalität (Value Rationality) | |
| RAYMOND BOUDON | 3 |
| Discussion Summary | 30 |

Chapter 2

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Max Weber and Ludwig von Mises, and the Methodology of the Social Sciences | |
| RICARDO F. CRESPO | 32 |
| Discussion Summary | 52 |

CONTENTS

Part Two

Neo-Kantianism, Wissenssoziologie (Sociology of Knowledge), and the Sociological Theory of Money and Exchange

Chapter 3

Value Theory and the Foundations of the Cultural Sciences.

Remarks on Rickert

- GUY OAKES 59

Chapter 4

The Sociology of Knowledge and Diagnosis of Time with Max Scheler and Karl Mannheim

- KARL ACHAM 79

- Discussion Summary 113

Chapter 5

Georg Simmel's Contribution to a Theory of the Money Economy

- RAIMUND DIETZ 115

Part Three

Ethics and Economics in Sombart, Spiethoff, Freyer, and in Older German Business Administration

Chapter 6

Ethics and Economics in the Work of Werner Sombart

- FRIEDRICH LENGER 147

- Discussion Summary 164

CONTENTS

Chapter 7

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Historical Changes and Economics in Arthur Spiethoff's Theory of Wirtschaftsstil (Style of an Economic System) | |
| VITANTONIO GIOIA | 168 |
| Discussion Summary | 191 |

Chapter 8

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Hans Freyer's Economic Philosophy After World War II | |
| VOLKER KRUSE | 194 |

Chapter 9

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Business Ethics in Older German Business Administration: Heinrich Nicklisch, Wilhelm Kalveram, August Marx | |
| UDO NEUGEBAUER | 209 |

Part Four

Austrian Economics and the Historical School

Chapter 10

| | |
|----------------------------------------------|-----|
| Carl Menger and the Historicism in Economics | |
| KIICHIRO YAGI | 231 |

Chapter 11

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The 'Irrelevance' of Ethics for the Austrian School | |
| RAIMONDO CUBEDDU | 259 |
| Summary of the Discussions on K. Yagi and R. Cubeddu | 285 |

CONTENTS

Part Five

The Historical School and American and British Economists: John R. Commons, Frank Knight, Alfred Marshall

Chapter 12

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Historicism of John R. Commons's Legal Foundations of Capitalism JEFF BIDDLE and WARREN J. SAMUELS | 291 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Chapter 13

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Frank Knight and the Historical School CLAUS NOPPENNEY | 319 |
| Discussion Summary | 340 |

Chapter 14

| | |
|---------------------------------------------|-----|
| Method and Marshall D. E. MOGRIDGE | 342 |
| Discussion Summary | 370 |

Part Six

The Historical School and the Development of Economics in Japan and Russia

Chapter 15

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Two Developments of the Concept of Anschauliche Theorie (Concrete Theory) in Germany and Japan TETSUSHI HARADA | 375 |
| Discussion Summary | 411 |

CONTENTS

Chapter 16

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Some Reflections on Ethics and Economics Concerning the German Historical School and Its Reception in Russia VLADIMIR S. AVTONOMOV | 413 |
| Discussion Summary | 422 |

Part Seven

The Historical School of Economics and Today's Economics

Chapter 17

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Old and the New Institutionalism in Economics EIRIK G. FURUBOTN | 429 |
| Discussion Summary | 464 |

Chapter 18

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Moral Leadership in Ethical Economics MARK CASSON | 467 |
| Discussion Summary | 485 |

CONTENTS

Part Eight

Theories of History and of Education, and a Philosophy of the Historical School

Chapter 19

Theories of History and of Education in Germany and France During the 19th Century

FRITZ RINGER 491

Chapter 20

A Philosophy of the Historical School:

Erich Rothacker's Theory of the Geisteswissenschaften (Human Sciences)

PETER KOSLOWSKI 510

Discussion Summary 529

Conclusion

Chapter 21

Germany, Japan and National Economics:

An Alternative Paradigm of Modernity?

DAVID WILLIAMS 535

List of Authors and Discussants 552

Index of Names 554