

Contents

Acknowledgements	iv
one Introduction	I
two Domestic violence and the medical profession	11
Part One: Domestic violence patients speak out
three Physical and non-physical injuries	33
four Treatment experiences	47
five Wider experiences of help seeking	67
Summary to Part One	73
Part Two: Clinicians' knowledge and clinical experience of domestic violence
six Definitions of domestic violence, roles and responsibilities	79
seven Explanations of causes	93
eight Physical versus non-physical injuries	107
nine Treatment options	117
ten Documentation and naming	133
Summary to Part Two	147
Part Three: Clinicians' training and inter-agency collaboration
eleven Intra-professional collaboration and communication	151
twelve Wider multi-agency collaborations	165
thirteen Training	177
Summary to Part Three	191
fourteen Conclusion	193
Bibliography	197
Appendix 1: Details of research participants	215
Appendix 2: Useful information and contacts	219