

Contents

“Goffman” by Charles Lemert	ix
Goffman’s Social Theory by Ann Branaman	xlv
Part I The Production of Self	1
1 Self Claims On Cooling the Mark Out: Some Aspects of Adaptation to Failure	3
2 Self-Presentation The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life	21
3 The Self as Ritual Object The Nature of Deference and Demeanor	27
4 The Self and Social Roles Role Distance	35
Part II The Confined Self	43
5 Status, Territory, and the Self The Territories of the Self	45
6 The Mortified Self The Characteristics of Total Institutions The Moral Career of the Mental Patient	55 63
7 The Stigmatized Self Stigma: Notes on the Management of Spoiled Identity	73
8 The Recalcitrant Self The Underlife of a Public Institution	81

Part III	The Nature of Social Life	93
9	Social Life as Drama The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life	95
10	Social Life as Ritual On Face-work: An Analysis of Ritual Elements in Social Interaction	109
	The Structure and Function of Situational Proprieties	111
	Supportive Interchanges	114
	Remedial Interchanges	119
11	Social Life as Game Fun In Games	129
	Where the Action Is	139
	Strategic Interaction	140
Part IV	Frames and the Organization of Experience	147
12	Frame Analysis Frame Analysis: An Essay on the Organization of Experience	149
13	Frame Analysis of Talk Felicity's Condition	167
	Response Cries	192
14	Frame Analysis of Gender The Arrangement Between the Sexes	201
	Gender Display	208
15	Social Interaction and Social Structure The Neglected Situation	229
	The Interaction Order	233
	Bibliography: Erving Goffman's Writings	263
	Bibliography: Secondary Literature	265
	Acknowledgements	273
	Index	275