

Contents

3 Foreword

by Robert W. Galvin

4 Preface

by RS Moorthy

The Challenge We Face
The Genesis of This Book
The Scope of This Book
How to Use This Book
 Use by the Individual
 Reader
 Use by Seminars

8 Disclaimer

9 Acknowledgments

10 Chapter One: Introduction

The Ethical Values of the Motorola Culture

The Motorola Culture's Midwestern American Roots

The Motorola Culture in Its New Global Context

Good Ethics Will Always Be Good Business

Motorola's Willingness to Learn from Other Cultures

The Motorola Ethics Renewal Process

16 Chapter Two: Approaches from the Cultural Sciences

Definition of "A Culture"

Concepts Related to Culture

Finding Ethical Overlaps Between Cultures

Ethics, Culture and the Individual

The Special Nature of the Motorola Culture

How the Motorola Culture Changes Through Time

Modes of Handling Ethical Issues Transculturally

Value Clarification Without Adjustment

Value Expression Adjusted to Local Standards

Deeper Substantive Adjustment

Global Reconciliation

The Motorola Culture's Possible Impact on a Host Culture

26 Chapter Three: Approaches from the Field of Ethics

Preliminary Steps

Ascertaining the Facts

Considering the Total Situation and Cultural Context

Identifying Intentions and Motives

Analytical Approaches

Consequences

Justice and Fairness

Rights

Duties

Traditions and Stories

Virtue

Ideals

Reflective Stances

Seeking Imaginative Solutions

Seeking to Prevent Recurrences

- 34 Chapter Four: Twenty-Four Cases with Commentaries
The Cases
The Discussion Questions
The Commentaries
- 38 Case 1
“Uncompromising Integrity”
and Egregian Justice
- 44 Case 2
The Phantom Air Ticket
- 48 Case 3
“Nurturing” a Deal
- 54 Case 4
Profits and People
- 60 Case 5
Friendship or Mutual Bribery?
- 64 Case 6
Constant Respect for — Human Rights?
- 74 Case 7
When Is Information
“Proprietary”?
- 82 Case 8
“Hardship” and the Eye of the Beholder
- 88 Case 9
Personal Luxury or Family
Loyalty?
- 94 Case 10
Performance Bonuses:
How to Allocate?
- 100 Case 11
The Golf Clubs That Would Not Disappear

- 106 Case 12
Are Training Budgets Geographically Equitable?
- 112 Case 13
Rupert's "Royal" Gift
- 118 Case 14
Facing Face
- 124 Case 15
Just When Is a "Tip" ONLY "To Insure Promptness"?
- 132 Case 16
Paying "Respect for People" in a Red Envelope
- 142 Case 17
Is Motorola Its Agent's Ethical Keeper?
- 152 Case 18
Operation Reap
- 160 Case 19
The "Rights of the Monarch"
- 168 Case 20
Gender Equity and the Eye of the Beholder
- 176 Case 21
Purple Toenails
- 186 Case 22
What Price Safety?
- 196 Case 23
Phony Phones
- 206 Case 24
A Tale of Two Cities

- 216 Chapter Five:
Key Conclusions
- 218 Afterword
by Glenn A. Gienko
- 220 Recommended Readings
in Business Ethics
- 222 Appendix One:
The Motorola Code of Conduct
- 232 Appendix Two:
Motorola/Japan Gift-Giving
and -Receiving Policy
- 238 Appendix Three: Preliminary
Case Guide for Facilitators
- 242 About the Authors