CHINESE TRADERS IN SINGAPORE: BUSINESS PRACTICES AND ORGANIZATIONAL DYNAMICS

List of Tables and Figures v
Foreword (Prof. Dr. Hans-Dieter Evers) vi
Preface ix
Acknowledgements xi

INTRODUCTION

1. Problem Statement 1
   - The Chinese Traders’ Success Story 2
   - The Current Situation:
     Changing Chinese Business Practices 5
2. Organization of the Study 7
3. Purpose of the Study 8

A. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

I. The Chinese Socio-Cultural Background 10

II. Some Facts on the Chinese in Southeast Asia 13

III. The Economic Roles of the Chinese in the Nanyang 16

B. THE FORMATION OF CHINESE BUSINESS PRACTICES
   AND ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURES 20

I. The Socio-Cultural Argument - Explaining Chinese
   Business Practices by Socio-Cultural Dimensions 21
   1. Socio-Cultural Dimensions of Business Conceptions 22
   2. Socio-Cultural Dimensions of Chinese Business Conceptions 27
II. The Socio-Structural Argument - Explaining Chinese Business Practices by their Status in Southeast Asian Host Societies

1. The Middlemen Minority Hypothesis

2. The Traders' Dilemma Hypothesis

III. Integrating the Argumentative Strings: The Role of Chinese Identity for Business Organization in Singapore

1. The Combination of the Two Arguments

2. Dimensions of Chinese Identity

- Economic Norms/Class Identity
- Cultural Norms/Cultural Identity
- Physical Norms/Ethnic Identity
- The Meaning of Ethnicity
- Ethnic/Racial and Ethnic Cultural Identity
- Political Norms/National Identity
- Some Critical Points

C. CURRENT CHALLENGES IN SINGAPORE
   - TIME FOR A CHANGE?

I. Singapore as a Case - Rising High on Chinese Roots

1. Introducing Singapore

2. Singapore as a Case

3. The Chinese in Singapore
II. Factors of External Pressure

1. Internationalization and Modernization of the Economy
2. Urban Renewal and Resettlement

III. Factors of Internal Pressure: Social Change among the Actors

1. Institutionalized Ethnicity:
   Bang and Chinese Associations
2. Confucianism and Generational Change in Singapore

IV. Chinese Identity in Singapore

1. Singapore's Multiracialism
2. Singaporean Identity
3. Chinese Identity and Chinese Business in Singapore

D: ALTERING BUSINESS PRACTICES AND ORGANIZATIONAL DYNAMICS OF CHINESE TRADING FIRMS IN SINGAPORE

I. Research Strategy and Methodological Proceeding

1. Database
2. Field Access
3. Data Collection and Analysis
4. Topics Covered in the Interviews and Case Studies
5. Interpretative Approach: The Case Study

II. Trade in Traditional Product Lines in Singapore
III. Selected Case Studies - Family Firms Dealing in Traditional Products in Singapore

Case Study 1 - Tan Han Lin
Case Study 2 - Yao Ang Si
Case Study 3 - Chop Ho Sing
Case Study 4 - Kum Ltd.
Case Study 5 - Suzukawa

134
134
157
173
187
207

IV. Summary and Contextual Interpretation of the Entire Survey

1. The Continuum between Traditional and Modernized Chineseness in Business
   - Chineseness in a Modern Setting
   - First Adjustments: Combinations of 'Chinese' and 'Western' Practices
   - Further Adjustments: Modernized Chineseness?

224
224
225
228

2. Contextual Interpretation -
   Altering Chinese Business Practices
   - Family and Business
   - Usage of Personal Relationships
   - Trends of 'Westernization'
   - Prospects

230
231
235
238
239

   - Expression of Identity and Government Influence

241
243

E. CONCLUSIONS

246

REFERENCES

251
LIST OF TABLES AND FIGURES

Table 1: Chinese Population in the Straits Settlement (1678-1860) 15
Table 2: Population Ratios in British Malaya 16
Table 3: Chinese Emigrants To and From the Straits Settlement 16
Table 4: Distribution of Overall Labor Force and Chinese Employment 19
Table 5: Need Fulfillment (Raw Scores) 30
Table 6: Need Importance (Raw Scores) 30
Table 7: Racial Mean Incomes in Peninsular Malaysia 56
Table 8: Singapore’s Population by Religious Affiliation 1980 89
Table 9: GDP by Industry, 1960-1981 90
Table 10: External Pressures Encountered by Chinese Trading Firms in Singapore 93
Table 11: Distribution of Chinese Associations by Type and Bang 101
Table 12: Chinese Associations Registered in Singapore Between 1973 and 1983 102
Table 13: Basic Information on the surveyed Trading Firms 122
Table 14: Ethnic and Regional Distribution of Trading Firms 124
Table 15: Interviewed Experts 127
Table 16: Imports and Exports of Ginseng and other 'Plants and Parts etc. for Pharmaceutical Use' 133
Table 17: Financial Highlights Kum Ltd. 191
Table 18: Relation of Family to Business 232
Table 19: Employed Kinsmen and their Positions in the Trading Firms 234
Table 20: Membership in Associations 236
Table 21: Tendencies of 'Westernization' in Management 238
Table 22: Strategies to Overcome the Defaults of Family Business 240
Table 23: Expression of 'Chinese Identity' by Government Influence 243

Figure 1: From Chinese Culture to Chinese Managerial System 32
Figure 2: A Typology of Managerial Systems 34
Figure 3: Hypothesized Distribution of Family Business among Four Systems 43
Figure 4: Family Firms: Phases of Development 44
Figure 5: Family Firms: Ideal Types of their Life Circles 44
Figure 6: Middleman Minority Theory 51
Figure 7: Dimensions of Chinese Identity 63
Figure 8: Nested Hierarchy Model 72
Figure 9: Explanatory Model for the Formation of Chinese Managerial Activities and Business Practices 79
Figure 10: Network Chart Tan Han Lin 146
Figure 11: Network Chart Chop Ho Sing 179
Figure 12: Organization Chart Kum Ltd. 196
Figure 13: Network Chart Kum Ltd. 202