

Contents

Illustrations	xi
Preface	xiii
I. Introduction
1. Art and Business: An International Approach on Sponsorship Rosanne Martorella	3
II. North and South America
2. Corporate Patronage of the Arts in the United States: A Review of the Research Rosanne Martorella	17
3. Corporate Involvement in the Arts and the Reproduction of Power in Canada Gerald S. Kenyon	33
4. Business Support to the Arts and Culture in Argentina Rodolfo S. Gonçebate and Margo E. Hajduk	47
5. Business and Culture in Brazil José Carlos Durand	65

III. The European Community

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| 6. Business Support for the Arts in Europe and CERECAnn Vanhaeverbeke  | 83  |
| 7. Corporate Collectors of Contemporary Art in BritainChin-tao Wu  | 89  |
| 8. Art Sponsorship by the Austrian Business SectorBrigitte Kössner   | 101 |
| 9. The Role of Foundations in Support of the Arts in GermanyVirginia Glasmacher and Count Rupert Strachwitz                | 109 |
| 10. Emerging Corporate Arts Support: Potsdam, Eastern GermanyVölker Kirchberg  | 119 |
| 11. Sponsorship and Patronage in Italy: Some Regional CasesStefano Piperno   | 131 |
| 12. Art Patronage Among Banks in ItalyPatrizia Zambianchi  | 151 |
| 13. Art Support as Corporate Responsibility in thePostindustrial City of Rotterdam, The NetherlandsErik Hitters        | 159 |
| 14. Modern Enterprise and the Arts: Sponsorship as aMeta-Mechanism of Culture in GreeceGeorge Halaris and George Plios | 169 |

IV. Asia and the Pacific

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 15. Art Audiences and Art Funding: Contemporary Relationshipsbetween Art and Business in AustraliaAnnette Van den Bosch | 181 |
| 16. Japan's Corporate Support of the Arts: Synopsisof the 1992 SurveyACSA (Kigyo Mecenat Kyogikai)                      | 189 |
| 17. Art and Cultural Policy in JapanKenichi Kawasaki  | 195 |

18. Japanese Corporate Collectors: A Social and Industrial Elite
Rosanne Martorella 203

V. Some Implications of Sponsorship

19. Monet for Money? Museum Exhibitions and the Role of Corporate Sponsorship
Victoria D. Alexander 213

20. The Rise and Fall of the Impresario
Patricia Adkins Chiti 225

21. Positive Rationales for Corporate Arts Support
Roland Kushner 235

Bibliography 247

Index 261

About the Editor and Contributors 265

Table 4.3	Sources of Income among Cultural Institutions in Argentina	58
Table 4.4	Amount of Donations by Cultural Activity in Argentina	61
Table 4.5	Arts Support by Type of Cultural Institution in Argentina	62
Table 9.1	Area of Support by Foundations	113
Table 9.2	Type of Support by Foundations	113
Table 9.3	Specific Areas of Foundation Support and Their Frequency	114
Table 9.4	Ten Largest German Foundations, Their Assets, and Areas of Support	115
Table 10.1	Arts Sponsorship by Industry Class	123
Table 11.1	Sponsorship Businesses Sector of Activity, 1991	140
Table 11.2	Sponsorship by Art Form	141
Table 12.1	Art Sponsorship among Banks in Italy	154
Table 13.1	Arts Support by Business Sector and the Number of Employees in Rotterdam, The Netherlands	163
Table 13.2	Reasons for Giving to Art and Social Causes	166
Table 13.3	Percent of Art Companies Contributing to the Arts by Art Form and Art Style	167
Table 14.1	OMEPO Companies and Firm Type	171
Table 14.2	Sponsorship by Cultural Form	173
Table 16.1	Art Support per Company in Japan	191
Table 17.1	Cultural Education Centers, 1989	199
Table 17.2	Import-Export of Fine Arts and Collections, Amounts and Values of East and Southeast Asia	200
Table 19.1	Museums and Time-Points in Sample	216
Table 19.2	Effects of Type of Funding on Popular, Scholarly, and Accessible Exhibitions	218
Table 19.3	Effects of Type of Funding on the Style of Exhibitions	219
Table 21.1	Distribution of Business Activity by Business Type and Asset Size, 1989	240

FIGURES

Figure 2.1	Percentage of Arts Grants Dollars by Major Subject	24
Figure 3.1	The Contribution of High Culture to the Reproduction of Power	34
Figure 10.1	Motives of Corporate Arts Sponsorship in Potsdam, West Germany, and the United States	125
Figure 11.1	Alternative Ways of Private Financing of Cultural Heritage	133
Figure 11.2	GNP Per Capita in Italian Regions, 1989	137
Figure 11.3	Average Per Capita GNP 1989-90-91 in Purchasing Power Parity; Piedmont and the Ten Richest European Regions	138
Figure 11.4	Arts Sponsorship 1991 Expenditure	143

Illustrations

TABLES

Table 1.1	Defining Characteristics of Corporate Patronage/Sponsorship	13
Table 2.1	Corporate Income, Contributions, and Support to the Arts	20
Table 2.2	Arts Grants as a Percentage of All Grants from Foundations	21
Table 2.3	Types of Support Awarded by Ten Major Corporate Arts Funders, 1989	25
Table 2.4	Motives for Corporate Support	27
Table 2.5	The Leading Corporate Contributors to the Arts, 1989	30
Table 3.1	Organizations Used in the Analyses	37
Table 3.2	Characteristics of Art Organization Board Members	39
Table 3.3	Characteristics of Art Organization Patrons and Major Donors	40
Table 3.4	Characteristics of Corporations Significantly Associated with Art Organizations	42
Table 3.5	Art-Induced Networks and Subnetworks among the Largest 140 Canadian Corporations	43
Table 3.6	Corporations Included in Two Largest Cliques Induced by the Corporate Affiliations of Inner Board Members of 23 Arts Organizations	43
Table 3.7	Corporations Included in Three Largest Cliques Induced by the Corporate Affiliations of Individual Donors to 15 Arts Organizations	44
Table 4.1	Reasons for Arts Support among Businesses in Argentina	53
Table 4.2	Types of Support by Businesses in Argentina	55