

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Preface | v |
| Acknowledgements | viii |
| 1 Environment words, environet and the rhetorical web | 1 |
| Environment words and environet | 1 |
| The rhetorical web | 11 |
| A new rhetoric | 19 |
| Discourse and environment | 27 |
| So what? | 31 |
| Reading the texts | 34 |
| 2 Topic analysis (I) | 37 |
| Environet of topics | 37 |
| Resources, energy | 38 |
| Population | 54 |
| Biodiversity, rainforest, species | 65 |
| Multiple interpretations | 77 |
| 3 Topic analysis (II) | 79 |
| Pollution, polluter | 79 |
| Global warming, climate change, the greenhouse effect | 87 |
| Sustainable development, sustainability | 97 |
| Earth, planet, globe, Gaia | 107 |
| The environet as an open system | 115 |
| 4 Environmental ethos | 119 |
| Essential vision: sustainable development, sustain, sustainability | 120 |
| Technical vision: energy | 125 |
| Systematic far-sightedness: resources | 126 |
| Inclusive far-sightedness: global warming | 128 |
| Reassuring realism: pollution | 132 |

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Reverent objectivity: Earth | 134 |
| Emotive objectivity: population | 137 |
| Restrained objectivity and its rivals: biodiversity and rainforest | 139 |
| The role of environmental ethos | 146 |
| 5 Constitutive figures: metaphorical argumentation, environmental irony, associative argumentation | 149 |
| Metaphorical argumentation | 150 |
| Environmental irony | 163 |
| Associative argumentation | 171 |
| From constitutive figures to figures of resolution | 178 |
| 6 Figures of resolution: dialectic of catastrophe, the feasible possibility, overcoming the polarity | 181 |
| Dialectic of catastrophe | 181 |
| The feasible possibility | 187 |
| Overcoming the polarity | 193 |
| Concluding on solutions | 200 |
| 7 Rhetoric and culture | 203 |
| The achievement of rhetoric | 203 |
| The answer culture | 208 |
| A culture of argument | 216 |
| Environet and modernity | 226 |
| Appendix One | 229 |
| Reading environmental texts: the methodology | 229 |
| Appendix Two | 233 |
| "Doing" rhetoric: a nuclear exercise | 233 |
| Bibliography | 237 |
| Index | 255 |