

Contents

Foreword

Hatry, Harry P. ix

Introduction

Halachmi, Arie and Bouckaert, Geert: Performance Appraisal and Rubik's Cube 1

I. The Challenge

1. Greiner, John M.: Positioning Performance Measurement for the Twenty-First Century 11
2. Epstein, Paul D.: Redeeming the Promise of Performance Measurement: Issues and Obstacles for Governments in the United States 51
3. Halachmi, Arie: Promises and Possible Pitfalls on the Way to SEA Reporting 77

II. Service Efforts and Accomplishment Reporting

4. O'Toole, Daniel E. and Stipak, Brian: Implementing Service Efforts and Accomplishments Reporting: The Portland Experience 101
5. Timney, Mary M.: Institutionalizing SEA Reporting across the Budget 115
6. Gianakis, Gerasimos A.: Integrating Performance Measurement and Budgeting 127

III. Performance Measurement in Context

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 7. Bovaird, Tony: The Political Economy of Performance Measurement | 145 |
| 8. Sandberg, Bo: Annual Performance Accounting and Auditing: Is It Possible? | 167 |
| 9. Harvey, Jean: Productivity in Professional Services: To Measure or Not to Measure | 187 |
| 10. Ammons, David N.: Local Government Standards via Professional Associations: How Useful Are They for Gauging Performance? | 201 |

IV. Performance Measurement: International Perspectives

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 11. Bouckaert, Geert: Measurement of Public Sector Performance: Some European Perspectives | 223 |
| 12. Bovaird, Tony and Gregory, David: Performance Indicators: The British Experience | 239 |
| 13. Medelberg, Magnus: The Authority's Performance — A Practical Assessment | 275 |
| 14. Sorber, Bram: Experiences with Performance Measurement in the Central Government: The Case of the Netherlands | 309 |
| 15. Chang, Shih-Hsien: Performance Monitoring in Taiwan: Issues and Observations | 319 |

Index 329

About the Editors 343

About the Contributors 345