

Contents

List of figures	vii
Part 1 Background	1
1 Historical background	3
2 CEN and ISO	13
3 CENELEC/IEC/ETSI	27
Part 2 Product Standards	39
4 Product standards	41
5 Market-driven and compliance-driven standards	49
6 Specific product and process categories	55
Part 3 Directives and Regulations	61
7 Directives, regulations, statutory instruments	63

8	Product liability, consumer laws, product safety, misleading advertising	71
9	Relationships with standards	77
Part 4 Management Standards and Regulations		81
10	ISO 9000	83
11	Environmental management standards	95
12	The Eco Management and Auditing Scheme Regulation	103
13	The health and safety regulations	113
14	General environmental regulations	121
15	The Responsible Care Programme	129
16	Major industry standards	141
Part 5 Testing and Certification		151
17	The need for demonstrability	153
18	Test houses and certification agencies	157
19	Accreditation bodies	169
20	Mutual recognition	175
Appendix ELSECOM and related groups		183

List of Figures

2.1	CEN	14
3.1	CENELEC	28
10.1	Development of ISO 9000	91
11.1	Development of ISO 14000	100
15.1	Relationship between the Responsible Care Programme, ISO 14000, ISO 9000, EMAS and the health and safety regulations	139
18.1	Relationship between companies, certifiers, test laboratories and accreditation agencies	165
20.1	Relationship between ISO/IEC, national standards bodies, certification agencies and accreditation bodies	181
20.2	Relationship between European Commission, national standards bodies, certification agencies and accreditation bodies	182