Structure of the Book, xiv

Acknowledgments, xiv

PART 1: THE CONCEPTUAL FOUNDATION FOR DSS, 1

1 DSS: Past, Present, and Future, 3

Introduction, 3

DSS and Other Systems, 4

DSS at the Intersection of Trends, 9

Development of the DSS Field, 12

Current Developments and Trends, 17

Future of DSS, 21

Summary and Conclusion, 22

Questions, 22

References, 23

2 The Information Executives Truly Need, 25

From Cost Accounting to Yield Control, 26

From Legal Fiction to Economic Reality, 28

Information for Wealth Creation, 31

Where the Results Are, 34

Questions, 36

PART 2: DEVELOPING AND USING DECISION SUPPORT APPLICATIONS, 39

3 Management Involvement in Decision Support Systems, 41

Approver and Administrator of the DSS, 42

Developer of the DSS, 44

Operation of the DSS, 46

Utilization of DSS Output, 47

Factors Affecting Management Involvement, 49

Evaluation of DSS Success, 50

The Impact of DSS on Management, 50

Conclusion, 51

21 Brainstorming '90s Style, 350

- "Electronic Brainstorming"—Here's How It Works, 351*
- How to Avoid the "Abilene Paradox" and the "Football Phenomenon," 352*
- But Is It for You? 353*
- Calculations, Weightings, and Grunt Work, 354*
- Case Study: How GE Rates the Boss—Safely, 355*
- Case Study: How Hewitt Associates Balances Decisions between Opposing Interests, 355*
- Case Study: How Westinghouse Uses Voting as a Discussion Stimulant, 358*
- Questions, 359*

22 How Lotus Notes Supports Workgroups, 360

- Is Notes Groupware? 361*
- Three Functions, Two Parts, 362*
- Notes at Work, 362*
- Lotus' Own Test, 363*
- Brilliant Compromises, 365*
- Three Conditions for Success, 366*
- Installation and Management, 367*
- The Overwriting Problem, 368*
- Many Roles for Notes, 368*
- Questions, 369*

PART 7: EXPERT SYSTEMS, 37123 Expert Systems: The Next Challenge for Managers, 373

- What Do Expert Systems Do? 374*
- What Are Expert Systems? 374*
- What Are Expert Support Systems? 375*
- Components of Expert Systems, 375*
- Inference Engine, 378*
- The Framework for Expert Support Systems, 378*
- Summary of Framework, 385*
- The Benefits of ESS to Managers, 386*
- Problems, Risks, and Issues, 387*
- Conclusion, 387*
- Questions, 388*
- References, 388*

24 An Expert System for Maritime Pilots, 390

- The Problem, 390*
- Decision Support for Smaller Bridge Watch Teams, 391*
- The Art and Science of Piloting, 393*
- Decision Support for Piloting, 395*
- The Piloting Expert System, 396*
- An Evaluation Using Gaming, 401*

Discussion, 409
Questions, 412
References, 412

25 Choosing an Expert Systems Game Plan, 414

The Knowledge Profile, 415
The Resource Profile, 416
The Specialist Approach, 417
AI Central, 418
The Dispersed Approach, 419
Support from the Top, 420
17,000 Rules, 421
Questions, 423

26 CoverStory—Automated News Finding in Marketing, 424

Introduction, 424
Basic Retrieval and Basic Reporting, 427
Finding the News: CoverStory, 428
Benefits, 433
Questions, 435
References, 435

PART 8: THE BENEFITS OF DECISION SUPPORT APPLICATIONS, 437

27 The Benefits of Decision Support at Xerox, Quaker Oats, and Beneficial, 437

Why Xerox Started at the Top, 441
Vision and Knowledge at Quaker Oats, 444
A Million-Dollar Savings at Beneficial, 447
CEO-Compatible Systems, 450
Questions, 450

28 Assessing EIS Benefits, 451

A Study of How EISs Are Assessed, 452
Study, 453
Assessing the Value of Conoco's EIS, 458
Conclusion, 473
References, 473

Decision Support Bibliography, 476

Index, 488

Questions, 51
References, 52

4 Determining Information Requirements for an EIS, 53

Satisfying Executives' Information Needs, 54
The Study, 57
Findings and Discussion, 58
Conclusion, 69
Questions, 70
References, 70

5 Applying Adaptive Design to a Real Estate DSS, 73

The Adaptive Design Process, 74
Case Study, 75
Case Summary, 81
Observations on the Case Study, 81
Summary, 82
Questions, 83
References, 83

6 Decision Support for Train Dispatching, 85

Introduction, 85
Train Dispatching at Southern Railway, 86
Development of the Support System, 89
Implementation and Its Impact, 91
Beyond the Basic System, 95
Summary, 96
Questions, 97

PART 3: THE ARCHITECTURE FOR DECISION SUPPORT APPLICATIONS, 99

7 Architecture for DSS, 102

Introduction, 102
The Dialog Component, 103
Future Dialog Styles, 107
The Data Component, 108
The Model Component, 112
Conclusion, 115
Questions, 115
References, 116

8 Data Base Requirements for Institutional and Ad Hoc DSS, 117

Introduction, 117
The Conceptual Framework, 118

The Study Method, 119
Four Case Studies, 121
Findings and Discussion, 124
Conclusion, 129
Questions, 130
References, 130

9 Multidimensional Data Bases for DSS, 132

Questions, 138

10 A DSS for Vehicle Routing, 139

Introduction, 139
Overview of Milk Tanker Scheduling, 140
The Mathematical Programming Approach, 141
The DSS Environment, 142
The System Structure, 144
Development Methodology, 149
Illustration of Usage, 149
Conclusion, 155
Questions, 155
References, 156

11 Guidelines for Designing EIS Interfaces, 157

The Development of EISs, 158
User Preferences May Change, 166
Questions, 167
References, 167

12 Document-Based Decision Support, 168

Introduction, 168
Technology Platforms, 170
Electronic Mail, 173
On-Line Databases, 173
Information Retrieval, 174
Hypermedia, 176
Groupware, 177
Document Management Systems, 177
Concluding Remarks, 179
Questions, 180
References, 180

13 Intelligent Support Systems, 182

Introduction, 182
Information Overload, 183

Software Agents, 186
Agent Applications, 191
Active Databases, 193
Competitive Intelligence from the Internet, 196
Personalized Newspapers, 199
Concluding Remarks, 202
Questions, 203
References, 204

PART 4: CREATING THE DECISION SUPPORT ENVIRONMENT, 207

14 Organizational Strategies for Supporting DSS, 209

Research Method, 211
Results, 214
Summary, 222
Questions, 224
References, 224

15 DSS Software Selection, 226

Introduction, 226
DSS Developments Affecting IS Planning, 228
A Decision Methodology for DSS Software Selection, 230
Case Example: The Wildlife and Fisheries Department, 242
The Impact of DSS Software on Specific DSS Development, 246
Concluding Remarks, 249
Questions, 250
References, 250

PART 5: EXECUTIVE INFORMATION SYSTEMS, 253

16 The Management Information and Decision Support (MIDS) System at Lockheed-Georgia, 255

Introduction, 255
MIDS at Lockheed-Georgia, 256
MIS in Context, 257
The Evolution of MIDS, 258
MIDS from the User's Perspective, 260
The Components of MIDS, 264
Benefits of MIDS, 266
The Success of MIDS, 267
Keys to the Success of MIDS, 269
MIDS II: The Ongoing Story, 271
Questions, 272
Case: An EIS Failure at Genericorp, 273
Questions, 274
References, 275
