

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	7
---------------------------	---

Chapter 1

Salient Features of the Labour Market

I. The cyclicity of the foreign labour force	9
II. Labour supply and employment	12
III. The profile and evolution of unemployment indicators	25
IV. Industrial relations and wage determination	40
V. Non-wage labour costs	45

Chapter 2

Labour Market Policies: The Institutional Structure

I. Introduction	53
II. Structure, management and main functions of the institutions responsible for labour market policies	53
III. PES staff and workload	63

Chapter 3

Public and Private Placement Services

I. Introduction	71
II. The Public Employment Service (PES)	71
III. Placement services of private agencies	79
IV. Quantitative indicators of the brokerage function	83

Chapter 4

Income Support for the Unemployed

I. Introduction	91
II. Benefit entitlements	91
III. The incentive structure and the management of income support	100

Chapter 5

Active Labour Market Programmes

I. Introduction	115
II. Overview	115
III. Description of labour market programmes	121

Chapter 6

The Current Reform Process

I. Introduction and background	137
II. The incremental reform proposal of the Federal Council and the Council of States	138
III. The radical reform proposal of the National Council	140
IV. The reaction of the Council of States and the compromise solution	141

Summary and conclusions	147
--------------------------------------	-----

Annex 1. The cyclicity of the labour market in Switzerland and three other comparable OECD countries	161
--	-----

Annex 2. Product market competition and rent-sharing	174
---	-----

Notes	182
-------------	-----

Glossary	186
----------------	-----

Bibliography	188
--------------------	-----