

Contents

Preface	ix
1. Introduction: Integrating Ethnographic and Cross-National Perspectives on Old Age	1
Ethnographic or Cross-National Research?	2
Why Bring Cross-Cultural and Cross-National Perspectives Together?	5
Part I. The Nature of Age: Biology, Chronology, and Culture	11
2. Cultural Variation and the Biodemography of Aging	17
The Biology of Aging	17
The Biologic Expression of Senescence	20
Aging and Survivorship	22
Aging and the Evolution of Human Longevity	26
Comparative Analysis of Life Tables	29
3. Population Aging and Comparative Demography	35
Variation in the Proportion of Elderly	37
Variation in Life Expectancy	44
Age-Sex Pyramids	46

Aging and the Demographic Transition	50
Fertility, Population Aging, and Government Policy		54

4. Culture and the Lifecourse	57
Conceptualizing the Lifecourse	58
Time and the Lifecourse	60
Cultural Variation in the Definition of the Lifecourse		63
× The Stages of Old Age: Old People, Ancients, and Ancestors	67
✓ Formal Models of Life Stages and Transitions	68
× Informal Models of Life Stages and Transitions: Implicit Systems of Age Stratification	74
Old Age as a New Stage of Life	77

Part II. Social Relationships, Kinship, and Generational Transactions      81

5. Family Relationships of the Elderly: Living Arrangements	85
Living Arrangements of the Elderly: The More Developed Countries	87
× Living Arrangements of the Elderly: The Less Developed Countries	89
✓ Determinants of Living Arrangements	96
× Position of the elderly within Households		102
6. Family Relationships of the Elderly: The Flow of Intergenerational Transactions	108
Cultural Variation in the Construction of Generational Ties	111
Generational Transactions within Families	115
Comparative Research on Intergenerational Solidarity		118
Family Caregiving to the Frail Elderly	128

7. The Aged and Intragenerational Relationships	139
Reciprocity and Interpersonal Exchange among Elders	140
Variation in Rules and Rule-keeping in Interpersonal Relationships	144
Disengagement, Activity, and Selectivity in Social Participation	151
8. Succession to Seniority	155
The Aged and Resource Control	158
The Aged and Resource Transfer	167
Resource Control, Elder Authority, and Modernization	170
Generational Equity in Cross-Cultural Perspective	183
Part III. Health Decline and Death	187
9. Aging, Health, and Dependency	191
Comparative Study of Aging and Morbidity	194
Measuring Functional Capacity in Other Cultures	195
Measuring Cognitive Impairment in Other Cultures	199
Self-Rated Health in Cross-Cultural Perspective	202
Aging and the Disablement Process	208
Cross-Cultural Variation in the Impact of Disability	216
10. Death, Death-Hastening, and Decrepitude	221
Death-Hastening in Comparative Perspective	224
Comparative Research on the Last Year of Life	229
Elder Abuse in Comparative Perspective	234
11. What Next? Hypotheses for Cross-Cultural Investigation	237
Living Arrangements: Aging Parents and Adult Children	240
Family Relationships: Reciprocity	241
Family Relationships: Caregiving	242

Modernization and Succession to Seniority	244
Health Decline, Death, and Death-Hastening	244
Health and Social Participation	247

References	249
-------------------	------------

Index	283
--------------	------------