

Contents

Preface vii

Acknowledgments xiii

Part I The Problem of the Image

1 Excessive Style The Crisis of Network Television 3

2 Unwanted Houseguests and Altered States

A Short History of Aesthetic Posturing 32

3 Modes of Production The Televisual Apparatus 73

Part II The Aesthetic Economy of Televisuality

4 Boutique Designer Television/Auteurist Spin Doctoring 105

5 Franchiser Digital Packaging/Industrial-Strength Semiotics 134

6 Loss Leader Event Status Programming/Exhibitionist History 160

7 Trash TV Thrift-Shop Video/More Is More 193

8 Tabloid TV Styled Live/Ontological Stripmall 223

Part III Cultural Aspects of Televisuality

9 Televisual Audience Interactive Pizza 249

10 Televisual Economy Recessionary Aesthetics 284

11 Televisual Politics Negotiating Race in the L.A. Rebellion 302

Postscript Intellectual Culture, Image, and Iconoclasm 336

Notes 359

Bibliography 407

Index 423