* This paper, written while Godefroy Dang-Nguyen was a visiting fellow at the MPIFG in Summer 1992, was presented at the Conference on Policy Development in an Emerging European State at the Norwegian School of Management in August 1992. Earlier versions had been presented at the Law and Society Meeting in Amsterdam in 1991 and the ECPR Joint Sessions in Limerick in 1992. We are grateful to Ralf Resch and Uwe Schimank for comments and to Cynthia Lehmann for linguistic assistance.
