

Contents

Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1 The Feminization of Poverty: Discovered in America Gertrude Schaffner Goldberg and Eleanor Kremen	1
2 The United States: Feminization of Poverty Amidst Plenty Gertrude Schaffner Goldberg	17
3 Canada: Bordering on the Feminization of Poverty Gertrude Schaffner Goldberg	59
4 Japan: A Special Case June Axinn	91
5 Labor Market and Family Policy in France: An Intersecting Complex for Dealing with Poverty Jane Jenson and Ruth Kantrow	107
6 Sweden: Promise and Paradox Marguerite G. Rosenthal	129
7 Socialism: An Escape from Poverty? Women in European Russia Eleanor Kremen	157
8 Poland: A Country of Conflicts Sophie Wojciechowski	183

9	The Feminization of Poverty: Not Only in America Gertrude Schaffner Goldberg and Eleanor Kremen	201
	Index	219
	About the Editors and Contributors	229

Tables

1.1	The Seven Study Countries, Selected Indicators	8
2.1	Labor Force Participation of Women, Age 16 and Over, 1950–1987	19
2.2	Female Householder Families with Children as Proportion of All Families with Children, 1960–1987	37
2.3	Female Householders with Children Under 18 by Marital Status, Race, and Hispanic Origin, 1960–1987	39
2.4	Poverty Rates by Type of Families and Presence of Children, 1960–1987, Selected Years	43
2.5	Poverty Rates by Household Type, Race, and Hispanic Origin, 1987	43
2.6	Poor Female Householder Families as Proportion of All Poor Family Households by Presence of Children, 1960–1987	46
3.1	Labor Force Participation of Canadian Women, Age 15 and Over, 1950–1988	64
3.2	Part-time Employment Rates for Canadian Women, 1953–1988	67
4.1	Trends in Number of Part-time Employees	95
4.2	Characteristics of New Hires by Firms with Five or More Employees, 1985	97
5.1	Labor Force Participation Rates by Age, 1988	109

5.2	Variations in the Working Population by Sex and Age, 1975–1985	110
5.3	Labor Force Participation Rate of Women by Age and Number of Children	111