

Contents

List of Tables	xi
Foreword to the Series	xiii
Foreword to the Book	xv
Preface	xix
Acknowledgments	xxi

PART ONE

TELEVISION AND CULTURE 1

CHAPTER ONE

Television and Cultural Behavior	2
Teleconditioning	2
TV Content's Cultural Impact	5
The Cultural Dimension	7

CHAPTER TWO

Studying Television	10
The American Perspective	11
TV Research and Modern Anthropology	11
The Special Significance of Brazil	12
Theoretical Significance	14
Cultural Imperialism or Cultural Diversity	15
National-Level Research	16
Content Study	17
Impact on Rural Communities	17

PART TWO

THE NATIONAL LEVEL 19

CHAPTER THREE

Censors and Gatekeepers	20
Government Censorship	21
Consumers and Public Opinion	23

Measuring the Audience 23
Audience Targeting: Massification Versus Segmental Appeal 26
Network Dominance 29
Monopolistic Control over Multiple Media 30
The Role of the Audience 32
A Presidential Campaign 33

CHAPTER FOUR

Telenovelas, Mass Culture, and National Identity 36
Television and National Identification in Brazil 36
The Telenovela 38
The Pattern of Quality and Mass Participation 42
The Pattern of Quality 44
Constancy 45
The Role of the Writer 46
Constancy Through the Actor 47
Other Constants 48
Themes, Settings, and Characters 49

CHAPTER FIVE

Cultural Contrasts in Prime-Time Society 52
Family Affairs 53
Strangers, Friends, and Workmates 54
Occupations and Social Status in Televisionland 56
Social Class and Ways to Rise in Life 58
Dark-Skinned Actors and Characters 61

CHAPTER SIX

Competition, Achievement, and Information 64
Narrow World of Sports 72
Cultural Values in Sports: Being Versus Doing 79
Awards 84
Information Processing and Brain Games 85
Where's the Weather? 88

CHAPTER SEVEN

What's News: Crime, Violence, and the Stranger 90
Crime in the Streets 93
Violence in Content 97
Does TV Violence Increase Subsequent Aggressiveness? 99
Dominant Themes: The Quest and the Stranger 100
Case Analysis: Star Trek as a Summation of Dominant American Cultural Themes 101
Anthropology and the Quest 105

PART THREE

THE LOCAL LEVEL 107

CHAPTER EIGHT

The Field Sites 108

- Gurupá 113
- Arembepe 117
- Cunha 121
- Ibirama 124
- Niterói 128
- Americana–Santa Barbara 130

CHAPTER NINE

Television's Social Impact 134

- Social Navigation 134
- Has Television Changed Your Life? 136
- How We Analyzed TV Effects 138
- Stages of TV Impact 139
- Television's Effects on Social Behavior 143
- Television in Society* 145
- Marriage, Family, and Social Distance* 146
- Contact, Solitude, Alienation, and the Issue of Telepassivity* 147
- Television's Effects on Reading* 150

CHAPTER TEN

Television's Impact on Attitudes, Fears, Values, Images, and Consumerism 153

- Measuring TV Exposure 153
- Measuring Attitudes 154
- Viewer Demographics* 155
- A Scary World?* 155
- Trust* 157
- Liberal Sex–Gender Views* 158
- Values: Family, Education, Love, Honor, Ability, Luck, Hard Work* 159
- Occupational Prestige Ratings and Aspirations* 159
- Television and Consumerism 161
- Urbanism and Rural–Urban Migration 163

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Festivals, Celebrations, and Gift-Giving 165

- Carnival: Local or National, Stimulus Diffusion,
Reactive Opposition 167
- Case Analysis: A National Sex Symbol of Carnival* 168
- Festivals, Local Culture, and the World System 174
- Television, Gift-Giving, Consumerism 176
- Christmas and Birthdays* 176
- The Evolution of Christmas* 178
- Festive Participation and the Efflorescence of Giving* 179

CHAPTER TWELVE

Television and Modern Life 184

Internal Variation: TV Impact as a Process 191

How Important Is Television for Understanding Modern Life? 193

Epilogue: Stage V—The Couch Potato Strikes Back 196

Appendices 200

1. Statistical Comparison of Field Sites 201

2. Significant Correlations Between Current Daily Televiewing Hours and Other Variables and Indices by Income Group and Community 203

3. Responses to “How Has Television Changed Life in Your Community?” by Field Site 206

4. Explanatory Power of 9 (Potential) Predictors of 17 Dependent Variables and Indices 211

Notes 214

References 233

Index 241

List of Tables

- 3.1 IBOPE's Social Classes 26
- 6.1 Responses to "What Are Your Favorite TV Programs?" 66
- 6.2 Responses to "What TV Programs Do You Usually Watch?" 68
- 6.3 Responses to "What TV Programs Did You Watch Yesterday?" 70
- 6.4 1984's Top Ten American and Brazilian TV Programs 72
- 6.5 Top 20 Weekly Prime-Time Shows, United States, 1985-86 73
- 7.1 Responses to "What Are Brazil's Biggest Problems?" 92
- 9.1 Attitudes Toward Television by Research Site 141
- 9.2 Attitudes Toward Television by Income Group 142
- 9.3 Year of TV Arrival and Current Average Daily Individual Viewing Hours by Field Site 148
- 11.1 Responses to "What Is the Most Important Festive Occasion of the Year for You?" by Viewing Level 169
- 11.2 Responses to "What Is the Most Important Festive Occasion of the Year for You?" by Community 181
- 12.1 Summary of the Effects of Long-Term Exposure to TV at Home 186
- 12.2 Summary of Correlates of Current Viewing Level 187
- 12.3 Summary of the Predictive Power of Nine Variables 194