

Contents

List of Tables		vii
Preface		ix
Chapter 1:	Joint Finance, Collaboration and Community Care	1
	Introduction	1
	Public expenditure and the personal social services	4
	Joint finance: original objectives and the official guidance	6
	The use of joint finance for health purposes	8
	Trends in joint finance take-up	10
	Conclusion: the focus of this study	14
Chapter 2:	Survey Method	17
	The sample frame and selection criteria	18
	Summary of FIS form errors and sources of data unreliability	23
	The implications of data unreliability: the national trends	23

	The implications of data unreliability: the sample selection	24
	The sample selection	25
Chapter 3:	Fieldwork Sites and Joint Finance Programmes: An Overview	28
	Introduction	28
	Organisational context	28
	Financial context	29
	The joint finance programme as a whole	30
	Analysis of programme characteristics	33
Chapter 4:	Locality Profiles	44
Chapter 5:	Towards An Explanation	68
	Hypotheses and perspectives	68
	Factors influencing health authorities to increase their take-up	69
	Factors influencing local authorities to reduce their take-up	76
	Outcomes and explanations: a balance of perspectives	85
	Summary	93
Chapter 6:	Principal Findings and Conclusions	95
	Trend towards increased health service take-up	95
	Nature of NHS spending	97
	Explanations for high NHS take-up rates	99
References		102
Appendix 1:	DHSS guidance on the use of joint finance by Health Authorities	106
Appendix 2:	FIS (HA)12/1	109
Appendix 3:	List of interviewees	111
Appendix 4:	Consistency of DHA schemes with DHSS guidance: health authority schemes in localities A, C and G	112

List of tables

Table 1.1: Allocation and take-up of joint finance including capital and revenue spend	11
Table 1.2: Allocation of joint finance by agency, 1982/83 - 1986/87: £000's (and % of relevant total)	13
Table 2.1: Distribution of FIS 'top 30' districts by programme share, 1983/84 - 1985/86	18
Table 2.2: Data for sample selection	20,21
Table 2.3: DHAs joint finance shares, 1983/84 - 1985/86	26
Table 2.4: Characteristics of the sample	27
Table 3.1: Sample localities: organisational and political context	29
Table 3.2: DHA RAWP position (1985) and local authority PSS expenditure patterns, (1982/83 - 1984/85)	30
Table 3.3: Joint finance programme size and DHA shares	31

Table 3.4: DHA joint finance expenditure trends 1983/84 - 1985/86	32
Table 3.5: Scheme size in sample localities	33
Table 3.6: Capital/revenue spending on DHA schemes, 1983/84 - 1985/86	34
Table 3.7: DHA scheme type and expenditure (£000s), 1983/84 - 1985/86	36
Table 3.8: Expenditure on new schemes	40