

Contents

List of figures	vii
A note on terminology	ix
Introduction	1
Part one The Islamic identity crisis
1 Identity crisis in the Islamic Periphery: Turkey and Malaysia	9
Part two The Islamic dilemma
2 Islamic underdevelopment: cause and response	35
3 The Islamic social contract: the quest for social justice and the problem of legislation	53
4 Islam and economic development: the problem of compatibility	76
Part three Development in the Islamic Periphery: the nationalist phase
5 Nationalism confronts Islam: the modernization debate in Malaysia and Turkey	99
6 Turkish etatism: creation of a non-competitive economy	126
7 Malaysian development by trusteeship: the broken trust	150

Contents

Part four Development in the Islamic Periphery: the modern state and the privatization challenge

- | | |
|---|------------|
| 8 Islam, the modern state and imperfect competition:
to ban or to regulate? | 173 |
| 9 Privatizing the Malaysian economy: transition from a national to a market ideology | 190 |
| 10 Privatizing the Turkish economy | 203 |

Part five Conclusion

- | | |
|---|------------|
| 11 Responsible development in the Islamic Periphery:
regulation, competition and public policy | 219 |
| Glossary | 234 |
| References | 236 |
| Index | 248 |

Figures

1.1	The Muslim True Path	11
2.1	The westward shift in economic centre of gravity	37
5.1	The Islamic world-view	100