Introduction: The Growth of Decision Support Technology.....	1
R.W. Blanning and D.R. King

Chapter 1: Advanced decision modeling and model management

On Semantically-Accessible Messaging in an Office Environment	10
S.O. Kimbrough and M.J. Thornburg (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 566-574)
A Relational Algebra for Assertion Management.....	19
R.W. Blanning (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 560-565)
*Reusing Structured Models via Model Integration	25
A.M. Geoffrion (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 601-611)
*An Economic Framework for Computing.....	56
W.B. Richmond, J.C. Moore, and A.B. Whinston (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 114-122)

Chapter 2: Knowledge-based decision support

PDM: A Knowledge-Based Tool for Model Construction	72
R. Krishnan (Decision Support Systems , Vol. 7, 1991, pages 301-314)
An Active Modeling System for Econometric Analysis	86
D.R. Dolk and D.J. Kridel (Decision Support Systems , Vol. 7, 1991, pages 315-328)
Only Diamonds Are Forever: Caching Knowledge for Episodic Classification Problems	100
G. Elofson and B. Konsynski (Proceedings of the 23rd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. IV, 1990, pages 281-288)
*The Impact of Parallel and Neural Computing on Managerial Decision Making.....	123
R. Trippi and E. Turban (Journal of Management Information Systems , Vol. 6, No. 3, Winter 1989/1990, pages 85-98)
Exploring Active Decision Support: The JANUS Project	134
S.A. Raghavan and D.R. Chand (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 33-45)

Computer-Based Critics	147
G. Fischer and T. Mastaglio (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 427-436)

Chapter 3: Organizational issues in DSS development

Electronic Meeting System Experience at IBM	158
D.R. Vogel, et al. (Journal of Management Information Systems , Vol. 6, No. 3, Winter 1989/1990, pages 25-43)

Expert Systems and Their Impact on the Firm: The Effects of PlanPower Use on the Information Processing Capacity of the Financial Collaborative.....	177
J.J. Sviokla (Journal of Management Information Systems , Vol. 6, No. 3, Winter 1989/1990, pages 65-84)

*Embedding Stakeholder Analysis in Object Oriented Organizational Modeling.....	197
S.C. McIntyre and L.F. Higgins (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 80-86)

*Integration of Organization and Information Systems Modeling: An Object-Oriented Approach.....	207
M. Chen and J.F. Nunamaker, Jr. (Proceedings of the 22nd Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. III, 1989, pages 70-79)

*Domain Coverage and Consensus in a Network of Learning and Problem Solving Systems.....	227
J.M. An, R.G. Hunt, and G.L. Sanders (Proceedings of the 25th Annual Hawaii International Conference on System Sciences , Vol. IV, 1992, pages 443-453)
