

---

CONTENTS

---

Exhibits	vii
PREFACE: An International Accounting Theory	ix
1. Cognitive Relativism in Accounting	1
2. Cultural Relativism in Accounting	25
3. Linguistic Relativism in Accounting	69
4. Organizational Culture Relativism in Accounting	87
5. Contractual Relativism in Accounting	107
6. Toward an International Accounting Theory	117
Index	127

---

EXHIBITS

---

1.1 List of Propositions and Corollaries	7
2.1 Methodological Issues in Comparative Management Research	30
2.2 Types of Cross-Cultural Management Research	34
2.3 Differentiating the Universal from the Particular	38
2.4 Cultural Relativism in Accounting	41
2.5 Composition of the Cultural Environment of International Business	42
2.6 Dimensions of the Cultural Environment of International Business	43
2.7 The “Fit” Among Culture, Structure, and Behavior/Values	46
2.8 Culture, Societal Values, and Accounting Subculture	50
3.1 Fishman’s Systematic Version of the Sapir-Whorf Hypothesis	73
3.2 Belkaoui’s Propositions of Linguistic Relativity in Accounting	76
3.3 Role Systems	77
3.4 Linguistic Relativism in Accounting: A Model	81
4.1 Organizational Culture Relativism in Accounting	89
4.2 Typology of Transaction-Governance Structures	91
4.3 Hypotheses for the Paranoid Constellation	92
4.4 Hypotheses for the Depressive Constellation	93
4.5 Hypotheses for the Dramatic Constellation	94
4.6 Hypotheses for the Compulsive Constellation	94

4.7 Hypotheses for the Schizoid Constellation	95
5.1 Contractual Relativism in Accounting: A Model	113
6.1 Audit Process Model	118
6.2 An International Accounting Theory	120