

Contents

Tables	ix
Figures	xi
Foreword by Richard J. Lewis	xiii
Foreword by Ralph H. Smuckler	xv
Preface by S. Tamer Cavusgil and Michael R. Czinkota	xvii

PART I: STATE AND FEDERAL PROGRAMS

1. Is Minnesota's Export Portfolio a Good Mix? LeaAnn Stagg	3
2. A Review of Export Promotion Programs in the Ten Largest Industrial States William C. Lesch, Abdolreza Eshghi, and Golpira S. Eshghi	25
3. State Development Programs: Assessment and Recommendations Mark Lincoln Chadwin	39
4. COMPRO: The Government Foreign Trade Data Base Bruce Guthrie	53
5. The United States and Foreign Commercial Service Peter G. Frederick	59

PART II: INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

- | | | |
|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 6. | Australian Policies for Trade Promotion and Assistance: Review and Evaluation | 65 |
| | Nigel J. Barrett and Ian F. Wilkinson | |
| 7. | The State of Victoria's Export Market Development Program: Integrating Business, Government, and Education | 79 |
| | John G. Onto | |
| 8. | Export Promotion in the Netherlands | 87 |
| | Bert Piëst and Henk A. Ritsema | |
| 9. | Stimulating Scottish and United Kingdom Economies through Export Promotion Programs | 101 |
| | Colin N. Wheeler | |
| 10. | Export Promotion and Trade Fairs in Norway: Are There Better Ways? | 119 |
| | Carl Arthur Solberg | |
| 11. | Export Promotion in the People's Republic of China | 127 |
| | Hans B. Thorelli | |
| 12. | Export Promotion and Assistance: A Comparative Analysis | 133 |
| | Lisa A. Elvey | |

PART III: UNIVERSITY AND PRIVATE INITIATIVES

- | | | |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 13. | World Trade Centers: Key Questions in Establishing a Private Sector Response to Global Integration | 149 |
| | Michael A. Weininger | |
| 14. | Center for International Trade Development—Oklahoma State University: A Key Player in Oklahoma's International Economic Development | 157 |
| | R. Duane Hall and Amy Albertson Tuncel | |
| 15. | Export Promotion Projects of the U.S. Department of Education's Business and International Education Program | 163 |
| | Susanna C. Easton | |
| 16. | Export Development Efforts in the United States: Experiences and Lessons Learned | 173 |
| | S. Tamer Cavusgil | |

PART IV: RESEARCH FINDINGS

17.	Perceived Barriers to Exporting and Export Assistance Requirements	187
	Sridhar N. Ramaswami and Yoo Yang
18.	Behavioral Correlates of Export Marketing: Findings from a Michigan Survey	207
	Attila Yaprak
19.	U.S. Textile and Apparel Exporters: Competing in World Markets	221
	Susan B. Hester and Barbara J. Vanden Berghe
	Conclusion	235
	Michael R. Czinkota and S. Tamer Cavusgil
	Index	239
	About the Editors and Contributors	243

Tables

1.1	Direct Foreign Exports from Minnesota, 1984	4
1.2	Manufactured Direct Foreign Exports from Minnesota by Two-Digit SIC Code, 1984	5
1.3	Distribution of Three-Digit State Exports for Selected Minnesota Manufacturing Industries	7
1.4	Largest Three-Digit SIC Export Industries	9
1.5	Export Intensity and Recent Performance of Largest Three-Digit Export Industries	10
1.6	Two- and Three-Digit Manufacturing Industries with High State Export Intensity	13
1.7	Two- and Three-Digit Manufacturing Industries with Low State Export Intensity	18
2.1	Export Promotion Expenditures in the Ten Largest Industrial States, 1984	26
2.2	Export Promotion Budget Shares in the Ten Largest Industrial States	27
2.3	Export Program Staffing	28
2.4	Distribution of Tasks	29
2.5	Seminar/Conference Activity by State Agencies	30
2.6	Trade Shows/Missions	31
2.7	State Publications on International Business	32
4.1	Sample CENSUS Printout: Leading Customers for Aircraft Exports	55
4.2	Sample CENSUS Printout: Leading Items Exported to Canada	56
8.1	Export Problems in Dutch SMEs	89

8.2	Degree to Which SME Exporters Consult Organizations Involved in Export Promotion	96
9.1	Use of British Overseas Trade Board Services	107
9.2	British Overseas Trade Board Program Net Expenditure	108
9.3	Use of British Overseas Trade Board Resources in Export Promotion	109
9.4	Personal Interviews with Construction Industry Firms	110
9.5	Usage of British Overseas Trade Board Export Services	112
9.6	Reducing or Eliminating Gaps in the Information and Marketing Chain	114
10.1	Importance of Agencies to Norwegian Exporters	120
10.2	Export Promotion per Activity, 1980-86	121
10.3	Support to Centralized and Individual Activities	122
10.4	Importance of Export Promotion Activities	123
10.5	Norwegian Exporters' Cooperation with their Representatives	123
16.1	Programs-Providers Matrix in Export Assistance	174
16.2	Relationship between Company Internationalization and Assistance Needs	178
17.1	Comparison of Factor Structure	195
17.2	Factor Loadings of Barriers to Exporting	196
17.3	Reliability Tests of Perceived Barrier Dimensions	198
17.4	Comparison of Summated Score Means of Factors	199
17.5	Extent of Use of Export Assistance Agencies	200
17.6	Percentage of Firms Using Services Given Awareness	201
17.7	Type of Export Assistance Required	202
18.1	Comparison Tests: Export Motivation	211
18.2	Spearman Rank Order Correlation Coefficients: Motivational and Size Correlates	212
18.3	Spearman Rank Order Correlation Coefficients: Organizational Behavior and Firm Demographic Correlates	214
18.4	Results of Reliability and Factor Analyses, Behavioral Data	216
18.5	Correlation of Initial and Continuing Motivation Factor Scales with Organizational Variables	217
18.6	Regression Analysis of Organizational and Marketing Variables on Behavior	218
19.1	Sources of Export Information	223
19.2	Demographic Summary of the Case Study Firms	225

Figures

2.1	A Segmentation Scheme for Export Development Programs	35
10.1	Structure of Export Support Programs in Norway	120
12.1	Source of Trade Promotion and Assistance versus the Extent of Coordination with Government Administration, Banks, and Enterprise	141
12.2	Portfolio of Trade Promotion Activity Efforts	144
12.3	Export Dependence and Export Promotion Intensity	145
14.1	Center for International Trade Development Services	158
14.2	Internal and External Factors Important for Developing Technical and Managerial Expertise in Exporting	161
17.1	Difficulty of Change and Assistance Required for Barriers	193