

Contents

From the President v

Who's Who Among Contributors vii

Introduction

Lawrence Schein

The Conference Board xiii

Part I: Perspectives From the Pacific Rim, Europe, and North America

Linking Quality Processes to International Leadership

Armand V. Feigenbaum

General Systems Company, Inc. 3

TQC in Japan

Hideki Kaihatsu

Fuji Xerox Company, Ltd. 7

Total Quality in the European Environment

P. Anne van't Haaff

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines 11

What We Need is an American Total Quality Renaissance

James K. Bakken

Ford Motor Company 15

Part II: Building Quality into the Organization

Leadership and Total Quality

James R. Houghton

Corning Incorporated 21

Linking Quality to the Business Strategy

Edward J. Kane

Management Science America, Inc. 24

Process Quality is The Driver of Corporate Competitiveness

Lazlo J. Papay

IBM Corporation 30

Competitive Benchmarking: Xerox's Powerful Quality Tool Robert C. Camp Xerox Corporation	35
---	----

A Nuts and Bolts Approach to Quality Management Mike Cordry Weyerhaeuser Paper Company	43
---	----

Part III: Catering to the Customer's Expectations

Maytag's Repairman is Still Lonely After All These Years Daniel J. Krumm Maytag Corporation	51
--	----

Measuring the Bottom-Line Impact of Customer Satisfaction Maryanne E. Rasmussen American Express Travel Related Services Company, Inc.	55
--	----

The Added Value of the Customer-Provider Partnership Aleta Holub The First National Bank of Chicago	60
--	----

Part IV: Managing Quality in a Multinational, Multicultural Company

Blending the Best of the East with the Best of the West A. William Wiggernhorn Motorola, Inc.	67
---	----

Quality's Cultural Foundation George Gourlay The Coca-Cola Company	71
---	----

Part V: The Malcolm Baldrige Quality Award

An Examiner's Bird's-Eye View Raymond Wachniak The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company	77
---	----

And the Winner is... James A. Fici Westinghouse Electric Corporation	84
---	----