

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

Part I Women and Work

1 Careers and Families among American Women: Can We Do Both?	9
The Current Situation	10
The Cost of Choosing Children 11
The Challenges to Living an Integrated Life 13
A History of the Work Lives of Women in America	14
The Colonial Period 14
Pre-Civil War Period 15
The Period Surrounding the Civil War 17
The World Wars 19
2 The Women's Movement and Family: A Historical View	21
A History of Feminism and the Family in the United States . . .	23
Seneca Falls 23
Suffrage 27
The Mid-Twentieth Century 28
Modern Feminism 28
The Equal Rights Amendment and Abortion 31
The Future of Feminism	33
Conclusions	36
3 New Work Attitudes, New Family Patterns: Where We Find Ourselves Today	37
The Commitment	38
The Stress	39
The Dual Burden	39

The Motivation	41
Economic Motivation	42
Psychological Motivation	42
The Spiritual Motivation	44
The Family	45
The Marketplace	45
The Response	46
The Individualistic Approach	46
The Relational Approach	49
The Goal	50

Part II New Virtues for a New World

4 Other Women's Daughters:
Individualism and Relatedness among Working Women	55
The Ethics of Self-Abnegation and Its Critique	56
The Labors of Love:
Productive and Reproductive Work	63
Agape in the Workplace	67
5 Rediscovering a Public Spirituality	71
American Individualism and Its Critique	72
Regaining the Perspective of Social Interdependence	75
Conclusion	79
6 Biblical Roots for a New Spirituality for Women	81
Women Interpreting the Bible	84
The Need for Interpretation	84
Biblical Authors and Patriarchal Culture	84
Different Approaches to Feminist Interpretation	86
Remnants of an Egalitarian Tradition	88
Genesis 2-3: "A Helper Equal to Him"?	88
Early Israel	89
Jesus' Ministry	90
Galatians 3:28 and Paul	91
Images of God and Women's Self-Understanding	94
Maternal Images of God and
the Status of Nurturance and Child Care in Our Culture	96
Other Feminine Works of God	98
7 A Spirituality of Self-Esteem and Social Communion	100
Self-Esteem: Women as Survivors	100
Sarah and Hagar	101
Tamar	103

Intelligence and Authority	104
The Wise Women of David's Reign	104
The Gentile Woman of Matthew 15 and Mark 7	106
Women, Anger, and Assertiveness: Jesus in the Temple	107
Positive Action and Courage	109
Judith	109
Esther	110
Perpetua and Felicitas	112
Independence, Interdependence, and Solidarity	115
Ruth and Naomi	115
8 Daughters of Deborah:
Rediscovering Women's Public Vocation	118
Vocation	120
Vocation as Divine Invitation and Authentic
Self-Discovery	120
Vocation, Work, and Relationships	122
The Public Dimension in Every Vocation	124
Women and Public Vocation	125
A New View in Our Churches	125
Vocation and Our Relational Obligations	128
Women in Public Vocations in Hebrew Scripture	128
Women's Economic Role	129
Women as Prophets, Social Critics, and
Political Advisors	130
Deborah	131
Women in Public Vocations in New Testament Christianity . . .	131
Women Apostles	132
Women Prophets	134
Women Deacons and Local Church Leaders	134
Early Church Women in Secular Vocations	135
Hildegard of Bingen: Healer, Preacher, Musician, and Scholar .	136
9 Other Daughters of Deborah:
Four Nineteenth-Century Women	142
Sarah and Angelina Grimke	143
Alice Meynell	148
Lillian Wald	152

Part III Making a Difference

10 Women and the Men in Their Lives	159
The Despair of a Traditional Lifestyle	159
Courageous Pioneers: Benefits of Change	161
Benefits to Individuals	161
Benefits to the Business World	163

Benefits to Children	163
Benefits to the Marital Relationship	165
The Challenges of Change	166
Challenges to the Marital Relationship	166
Challenges to Family Life	167
Moving from Coping to Integration	168
Encountering Ourselves	169
Communicating with Men	171
Mutual Concern at Home	172
Mutual Concern at Work	174
Reweaving Life	176
11 Ourselves, Our Daughters, and Our Sons:
Concrete Tasks for the Future	178
Current Attitudes and Practices	179
Work Patterns	179
Work Culture	180
Family Care	181
Interim Strategies	182
Part-Time Work	182
Working at Home	184
Flextime	184
Hiring Domestic Help	185
Time Management	186
Job-Sharing	186
Visionary Models	186
Child-Rearing and Education	187
Employment Practices	189
Issues to Consider in Workplace Change	193
Public Policy	195
The Role of Churches and Synagogues	197
Conclusion	198
Notes	199
Index	215