

Contents

Introduction	ix
Acknowledgements	xiii
CHAPTER 1 – THE 1990s SCENARIO	1
INTRODUCTION	1
THE WORKFORCE IN THE 1990s	2
Young people	3
The workforce as a whole	6
SKILL SHORTAGES	6
General	6
Technicians	7
Information technology	8
Graduates	9
CHAPTER 2 – RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION	11
INTRODUCTION	11
Pay and benefits	12
Career development and prospects	12
Horses for courses	13
The recruitment process	14
YOUNG PEOPLE	15
Recruitment	15

CONTENTS

Terms and conditions of employment, training and prospects	16
Education/business partnerships	17
Compacts	18
Work experience	19
Revising entry requirements	21
The Youth Training Scheme	22
Small employers	23
GRADUATES	24
Supply and demand	24
Graduate expectations	26
Planning a recruitment strategy	27
Entering the graduate recruitment market	30
Looking to Europe	30
Sponsorship	32
Utilising graduates	34
SPECIAL MEASURES	35
Transport	36
Long distance recruitment	36
Re-locating work	37
Housing assistance	38
Collective employer action	39
Chapter 3 – UNDER-UTILISED SOURCES OF LABOUR
INTRODUCTION	41
WOMEN	42
Career break schemes	44
Childcare arrangements	46
Workplace nurseries	46
Financial assistance for childcare	48
Childcare provision age 5–16	49
THE UNEMPLOYED	50
Employment Training	50
Ex-offenders and other disadvantaged groups	53
Customised training	55
OLDER PEOPLE	56
Recruitment	57
Training	57
Equal opportunity	58

THE DISABLED	59
Overcoming the barriers	60
Aids for the disabled	61
The Quota Scheme	63
Recruiting disabled people	63
ETHNIC MINORITIES	64
Recruitment and training	65
Equal opportunity	66
CHAPTER 4 – CHANGING WORK PATTERNS	69
INTRODUCTION	69
MORE FLEXIBLE ARRANGEMENTS AT WORK	71
Flexible working hours	71
Part-time working	71
Job sharing	73
Sub-contracting	75
Temporary workers	75
REMOTE WORKING	76
The pioneers	77
The scope and opportunities	79
Equipment	80
Status of home workers	80
Communication and management	81
THE SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME	83
CHAPTER 5 – TRAINING AND RE-TRAINING	85
INTRODUCTION	85
TRAINING AND ENTERPRISE COUNCILS	86
Business Growth Training	88
MANAGEMENT TRAINING	89
Preparing for the 1990s	89
The direction of management education, training and development	90
The Management Charter Initiative	92
TRAINING IN EMPLOYMENT	93
Appendix – The work of British Chambers of Commerce in helping to resolve skill shortages	97
Index	99