Contents

List of figures and tables vii
Notes on contributors xi
Acknowledgements xv
List of abbreviations xvi

Part I – Introduction 3
1 Introduction: the challenge of longer and healthier lives
Ian Glover and Mohamed Branine

Part II – The problem and its causes 25
2 Ageism, early exit, and the rationality of age-based discrimination
Colin Duncan

3 ‘Do not go gentle into that good night’: some thoughts on paternalism, ageism, management and society
Ian Glover and Mohamed Branine 47

4 The plateaued manager: the anatomy of an ageist stereotype
Peter Herriot 65

5 Discrimination by age: the organizational response
Ann E. McGoldrick and James Arrowsmith 75

6 Is retirement sustainable?
Philip H. Bowers 97

7 Ageism without frontiers
Ian Glover 115
Part III – The experience and practice of age discrimination in employment

8  Ageism in retailing: myth or reality?
Adelina Broadbridge

9  Ageism, young academics and the buffalo stance
Karen Rodham (née Gadd)

10 Ageism and arm’s length management: the voice of experience
David Jenkins, interviewed by Ian Glover

11 Anti-ageist legislation: the Australian experience
Jenny Hamilton

12 Old enough to know better: age stereotypes in New Zealand
Darren J. Smith

13 Ageism and work in the EU: a comparative review of corporate innovation and practice
David Parsons and Lesley Mayne

14 Ageism in the ‘Quarter Acre, Pavlova Paradise’ – will she be right?
Graham Elkin

Part IV – Remedies and prospects

15 Older workers and the cult of youth: ageism in public policy
Philip Taylor

16 Fitness for work: the effects of ageing and the benefits of exercise
Alan Nichols and Wendy Evangelisti

17 Ageism and unemployment: practical remedies from secondment programmes in small and medium-sized enterprises
Colin Bottomley

18 Managing the third age workforce: a review and agenda for research
Christine Tillsley and Philip Taylor

Part V – Conclusion

19 Therefore get wisdom
Ian Glover and Mohamed Branine

Index

vi
List of figures and tables

Table 2.1  Economic activity rates (percentages) of older men and women in Britain 1951-1994  32
Table 5.1  Upper age bar use and inferred preference by year  79
Table 5.2  Method of placement and the use of age  80
Table 5.3  Factor analysis of attitudes to older workers  85-86
Table 5.4  Age at which organisational employee considered ‘older’  86
Table 5.5  Age used in decision making  87
Table 5.6  Personal experience of age discrimination  88
Table 5.7  Comparison of age to other equal opportunities issues  89
Table 6.1  Life assurance and pension schemes: income and expenditure of funded schemes (£ million)  103
Table 8.1  Job demographics of retail managers  160
Table 8.2  Level of satisfaction with current job  161
Table 8.3  Job satisfaction: significant differences between managers under and above the age of 40  163
Table 8.4  Factors helping and hindering career development  165
| Table  | 8.5  | Percentage of managers encountering various problems | 166 |
| Table  | 8.6  | Likelihood of changing jobs in the next 12 months    | 167 |
| Table  | 8.7  | Ultimate position desired (percentages)              | 168 |
| Table  | 8.8  | Extent to which ultimate career goals are realistic (percentages) | 169 |
| Table  | 12.1 | Age projections for selected countries               | 219 |
| Table  | 12.2 | Comparison of respondent answers by sex              | 225 |
| Table  | 12.3 | Comparison of respondent answers by age              | 226 |
| Table  | 12.4 | Respondents’ attitudes to existence on ageism problem | 226 |
| Table  | 12.5 | NZ and UK comparison of responses to items in factor one: worker effectiveness | 227 |
| Table  | 12.6 | NZ and UK comparison of responses to items in factor two: adaptability | 227 |
| Table  | 13.1 | The population in the European Union 1990-2015        | 238 |
| Table  | 13.2 | Female and male life expectancy in the European Union at age 60 | 239 |
| Table  | 13.3 | State retirement ages in the European Union, 1992     | 240 |
| Table  | 13.4 | Male activity rates for the 55-64 age groups, in percentages | 242 |
| Table  | 13.5 | Employment rates for men aged 65 and over, in percentages | 243 |
| Table  | 13.6 | Ageing of the labour force 1990-2015 (% in age group)  | 243 |
| Table  | 13.7 | Percentage of organisations recruiting persons past state retirement age into different occupational categories (valid percentage) | 245 |
Table 13.8 Percentages of employers recruiting past state retirement to different occupational categories 249

Table 16.1 General population statistics (UK) 286

Table 16.2 Percentage and gender of 50+ population (1993) 286

Table 16.3 Predictions of age increases 287

Table 16.4 Cost and results of fitness to health 288

Table 16.5 Percentage of people aged 55-74 years who found it difficult to walk 400 metres 290

Table 16.6 Percentage of people aged 55-74 years who found it difficult to lift or carry 25 pounds 290

Figure 2.1 Typology of age-based employer policies towards older workers 36

Figure 2.2 The effect of age on performance 37-38

Figure 5.1 Attitudes towards older employees and age discrimination in employment 83

Figure 6.1 Support ratios in 1980 and 2040 101

Figure 6.2 The evolution of the support ratio in the UK on two projection bases 102

Figure 6.3 Net cash flow of pension funds with a 5.26 percent return on equities and a 3.5 percent return on government stocks 106

Figure 6.4 Income from employment, compared with pensions, social security and investment incomes of the retired, 1992-2032, in real terms 112

Figure 13.1 Percentages of organisations targeting older people in their recruitment processes 247

Figure 13.2 Percentages of employers increasing the numbers of older (over 50 years of age) recruits 248
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Figure</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>13.3</td>
<td>Percentages of employers recruiting people past state retirement age</td>
<td>249</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13.4</td>
<td>Percentages of employers introducing phased retirement to aid the recruitment and retention of workers over 50 in the past three years</td>
<td>250</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14.1</td>
<td>Elderly population, selected countries 1950 and 2020</td>
<td>256</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14.2</td>
<td>Elderly dependency ratios 1951, 1991 and 2031</td>
<td>257</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14.3</td>
<td>Adjusted retirement age to maintain the 1991 level of elderly dependency, by labour force projection, 1991-2031</td>
<td>259</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14.4</td>
<td>An increase in flexibility</td>
<td>265</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>