

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
1. Recent economic developments and the prospects of industrial organization BEN DANKBAAR, JOHN GROENEWEGEN AND HANS SCHENK	1
I Assessing Industrial Economics
2. On market theory HENK W. DE JONG	29
3. Some challenges for industrial economics ROBIN MARRIS	41
4. Neoclassical models of industrial organization: an assessment and comparison with alternative perspectives CHRISTOS N. PITELIS	63
II Aspects of Internationalization
5. Industrial organization and trade modelling: the case of Canada/U.S. free trade TIM HAZLEDINE	75
6. Export price, demand disturbances, and market structure HIDEKI YAMAWAKI	95
7. R&D innovation and trade performance DAVID G. MAYES, TONY BUXTON AND ANDY MURFIN	107

III	Innovation Strategies and Technological Development
8.	Learning patterns within a technological network: the case of the European space program JOSEPH SHACHAR AND EHUD ZUSCOVITCH	133
9.	Innovation in advanced materials: technological opportunities, innovative processes, effects on the industrial structure ROBERTO MALAMAN	151
10.	Strategic partnering and technological co-operation JOHN HAGEDOORN AND JOS SCHAKENRAAD	171
IV	Mergers, Acquisitions and Competition Policy
11.	International mergers: the pursuit of global market leadership? MICHAEL C. McDERMOTT AND SIDNEY J. GRAY	195
12.	Merger policy and small open economies: the case of Canada R. SHYAM KHEMANI	215
13.	Innovations and antitrust REUVEN BRENNER	235
V	Institutional and Structural Change
14.	Assessing structural change: the case of Austria DALIA MARIN	261
15.	The impact of privatization on the performance of the UK public sector MATTHEW BISHOP AND JOHN KAY	275
16.	Productivity, machinery and skills: clothing manufacturing in Britain and Germany HILARY STEEDMAN AND KARIN WAGNER	289
	Contributors	309