

Contents

List of Tables	v
Acknowledgements	vi
Introduction	vii

Part 1 Health Care and Technological Change

1	Technological Change and Social Service Production	3
	Health care and the development of welfare states	3
	Health care and the economy	6
	Technology and social service production	8
2	Technological Change and Health Care	27
	Health care: Defining the technological base of a social service	27
	Classifying health care technologies	30
	Health care technology as a dynamic process	34
	Examples of change in health care technology	49
3	Production, Consumption and Health Care
	Technology	68
	Location and control	68
	Technological change and the factors of production	76
	Technological change and consumption of health care	88
	Marketing innovations and consumption	89
	'Social innovation' and future health care production and consumption	97

Contents

4	Political Innovation and Health Care	104
	Direct public provision and funding	104
	Indirect action by government	110
	Government and convergence of health care systems?	120
5	Technological Change and Economic Cycles	124
	Innovation and economic cycles	124
	Health care innovation and long-wave cycles	128
	Government action, health care and long waves	135

Part II Technology and the Welfare State

6	Technology and the Welfare State: A Missing Dimension	147
	Explanations for the welfare state	147
	Technology and health care: an overview	155
	Adding technology: an ingredient in 'cumulative synthesis' of knowledge building about the welfare state	167
	Innovation as a response to crisis in the welfare state	169
	References	194
	Additional reading	205
	Index	209

List of tables

1.1	Total health care spending as a percentage of gross national product in Britain and America	7
1.2	Public expenditure on health care as a percentage of gross national product in Britain and America	7
2.1	Basic innovations in health care technology	35
3.1	Health care occupations as a percentage of total health service employment in America	83
5.1	Dating of Kondratieff or long-wave cycles	130
5.2	The timing of health care innovations	131
5.3	Health care innovations and Kondratieff cycles	133
5.4	Government income and expenditure in England and Wales, 1781–1870	137
5.5	Growth in government revenue, expenditure and social spending in Britain, 1911–75	138
5.6	Major political innovations in British and American health care systems	140