Table of Contents

Introduction	15
Executive Summary	17
Udo Reifner, Jan Evers
 Purpose Summary of findings Conclusion 	17 19 22
Part I.: Small business and the social economy	23
Introducing Small Enterprises Jan Evers	23
 1.1. Importance and weaknesses 1.2. Definitions: micro enterprises, small enterprises and small and medium-sized enterprises 	23 25
1.3. Small enterprises and the social economy	23 27
1.4. The social economy in numbers	28
2. New Businesses, Funding Requirements and the Cost of Assistance Benoît Granger	30
 2.1. The job-creating potential of new businesses over a period of five years 2.1.1. Geographical breakdown 2.1.2. Overall market 2.1.3. Funding requirements 	30 30 30 31
 2.2. The cost of assistance/aid to creation/post-creation follow-up (Illustrated by the example of the Nord-Pas de Calais region) 2.2.1. Comprehensive assistance 2.2.2. Follow-up 2.2.3. The cost of each function 2.2.4. The cost of funding decisions 2.2.5. Conclusion: Public and private aid should be concentrated and co-ordinated 	31 31 32 32 32 32
Part II.: Financial problems of new and small businesses	35
1. Introduction	35
Jan Evers	رر

2.		mal -Sector Financing of the creation and operation of Micro-Enterprises razzaville - Experiences from Kongo	39
		Centre de Recherche et d'Études en Monnaie BAnque et Finances (CREMBF)
		Introduction	39
		The survey and its methodology	39
		Key features of micro-enterprises and the informal
	2.0.	financial sector	40
		2.3.1. Micro-enterprises in Brazzaville	40
		2.3.2. The informal financial system	41
		2.3.3. The relationship between the informal financial sector and micro-enterprises	41
	2.4	Profiles of micro-entrepreneurs by sector	42
	~	2.4.1. Breakdown of the population by background	- and sector of activity	42
		2.4.2. Why micro-enterprises are created	43
	2.5.	Current methods of micro-enterprise financing	44
	2.5.	2.5.1. Micro-enterprise financing: initial investment	45
		2.5.2. Micro-enterprise financing: working capital	46
	2.6.	Conclusion	47
	2.0.	Conclusion	•
3,	Expe	riences from Germany and the United Kingdom	49
	l	Udo Reifner, Jan Evers
	3.1	Equity versus Credit?	49
		Lack of security	50
		Cash-flow problems	51
		Transaction costs versus loan size	52
4.	Usur	y and the Failings of the Lending Market - Experiences from Italy	55
		Pasquale Busà
	4.1.	Introduction	55
		Who are the usurers?	56
		Why resort to usury?	57
	4.4.	The anomalies of legitimate lending	58
		4.4.1. The high degree of discretion over the rates of interest charged	59
		4.4.2. The lack of transparency in customer management	59
		4.4.3. The services offered	59
	4.5.	System of controls	60
_
5.	Hous	eholds and small Enterprises - Experiences from Greece	62
		tion and bank loaning dimensions influencing the development or limitation of sm	nall and micro enterprises in Greece

Sotirios Chtouris

6. Le	arning with Dutch Bankers about Small-Scale Enterprises	65
	Dorine Putman
6.1		65
6.2	. Definition of target group	65
6.3	. Facilities and strategies for start-ups	66
6.4		67
6.5	. Screening the client	67
6.6	. Collaboration between banks and other institutions	68
	. Triodos Bank	69
6.8	SEON Foundation	69
7. The	Problems of Credit Access for SME in France and in Europe	71
	Madeleine Erbs
	Introduction	71
7.2.	Enterprises	72
	7.2.1. Characteristics of the enterprise population	72
	7.2.2. Disparate population	72
7.3.	Dynamism of the enterprise population	73
	7.3.1. Small and micro enterprises as a source of job creation	73
	7.3.2. Constant renewal of the enterprise population	,,, in order to combat its high death rate	73
~ .	7.3.3. Dynamic management to ensure survival lacks inputs	74
7.4.	Dependence of micro and small firms on the hanking system	74
	7.4.1. Financing of firms' needs	74
7.5	7.4.2. Causes of business failure	74
7.5.	The financial system	76
	7.5.1. Inappropriate bank strategies	76
	7.5.1.1. High bank transaction costs for small-enterprise lending do not permit investment in long-term development	76
7.6	7.5.1.2. Increasing emphasis on bank services	76
7.0.	Unsuitability of financial products available	76
	7.6.1. Credit to small business still with a short-term focus	76
7.7.	7.6.2. Equity capital products are virtually non-existent	77
7.8.	Narrowness of banks' margins and loan risk Inadequate guarantee systems	77
,	7 8 1 Excessive recovery	78
	7.8.1. Excessive recourse to personal guarantees	78
7.9.	7.8.2. Over-restricted guarantee funds Unreliability of financial information	78
	7.9.1. Ambiguous position of banks	78
	7.9.2. Insufficient training of entrepreneurs	78
7.10.	Poor distribution of public and community aid	79
7.11.	Inaccessible financial markets	79
	markets	79

Pa	art III.	: The methodology of financial institutions lending to small enterprices	81
1.	Intro	duction	81
		Jan Evers
		Local banking	81
		Alternative banking	82
		Public banking	82
	1.4.	Traditional banking	83
2.	Loca and l	Il Finance for Local Entrepreneurs: Systems of Interaction Mediation between Small and Micro Enterprises and the Banking Sector	85
		Hans Dieter Seibel
	2.1.	Summary	85
	2.2.	The lack of viable and sustainable local financial services:
		a core problem of small and micro-enterprises	86
		2.2.1. The issue of start-up finance for new enterprises	87
	2.3.	The conventional policy framework: a systems perspective	88
	2.4.	Local finance for local entrepreneur through financial systems
		development strategies	88
	2.5.	The institutional infrastructure of local finance	90
	2.6.	Local finance for local entrepreneurs through institutional
		adjustment strategies	92
		2.6.1. Formal finance and the institutional adaptation strategy	94
		2.6.2. Non-formal finance and the institutional enhancements strategy	95
		2.6.3. Formal and non-formal finance and the linkage strategy	98
		2.6.4. The infrastructural innovation strategy	99
	2.7.	Local finance for local entrepreneurs through supportive
		instrumental strategies	100
	2.8.	Recommendations	102
3.		native Banking - Financing Systems for Associations
	and (Co-Operatives in Belgium	103
	i	Pascal H. Gregoire
	3.1.	The problems of financing the voluntary sector	103
		Belgian local savings and solidarity-based initiatives - a typology	104
		3.2.1. The organisation of voluntary or "associative" savings	104
		3.2.2. Rotating savings and credit associations	105
		3.2.3. Financing co-operatives	105
		3.2.4. The ethical interface between associative savings groups, rotating savings and credit associations, financing
		co-operatives and traditional savings banks	106
	3.3.	Local, solidarity-based financial intermediaries (examples)	106
		3.3.1. Savings and rotating credit associations - the example of Netwerk Vlaanderen	106

3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues
3.3.1.2. Krekelsparen (the "cicada" system of savings) 3.3.1.3. Financial support 3.3.1.4. Netwerk's sources of income 3.3.1.5. Netwerk Vlaanderen's activities 3.3.1.6. Activities undertaken in collaboration with the ASLK savings bank 3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social justification 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues			3.3.1.1. Netwerk Vlaanderen: a brief description	106
3.3.1.5. Prinancial support 3.3.1.4. Netwerk's sources of income 3.3.1.5. Netwerk Vlaanderen's activities 3.3.1.6. Activities undertaken in collaboration with the ASLK savings bank 3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.1.2. Krekelsparen (the "cicada" system of sayings)	106
3.3.1.5. Netwerk Vlaanderen's activities 3.3.1.6. Activities undertaken in collaboration with the ASLK savings bank 3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.1.3. Financial support	107
3.3.1.6. Activities undertaken in collaboration with the ASLK savings bank 3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Iriodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues			3.3.1.4. Netwerk's sources of income	107
3.3.1.6. Activities undertaken in collaboration with the ASLK savings bank 3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Iriodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues			3.3.1.5. Netwerk Vlaanderen's activities	107
the ASLK savings bank 3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 12			3.3.1.6. Activities undertaken in collaboration with	100
3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative credit) 3.3.2.1. Objectives 3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues			the ASLK savings hank	108
3.3.2.2. Activities 3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.2. Financing co-operatives: the example of Crédal (alternative gradit)	109
3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues			5.5.2.1. Objectives	109
3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93) 3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.2.2. Activities	109
3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal 3.3.2.5. Relations with savers 3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues 12 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.2.3. Facts and figures (31.12.93)
3.3.2.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues 12 12 12			3.3.2.4. Further information on the organisation of Crédal	110 110
3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network), non-profit association 3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 12 12 12 12 12 12 13 14 15 16 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17			5.5.2.3. Relations with savers	110
3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.3. The Réseau Financement Alternatif (alternative financing network)	110
3.3.3.1. Background 3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			non-profit association	110
3.3.3.2. Objectives 3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.3.1. Background	110
3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale savings 3.3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social justification 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.3.2. Objectives	110
3.3.4. Development of the network 3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.3.3. The approach adopted - Cigale sovings	111
3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts 3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 12			3.3.3.4. Development of the network	111
3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank 3.4. Lenders for social purposes and the public authorities: the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.3.5. Other Cigale accounts	112
the social economy partnership 3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.4. Triodos: solidarity-based development bank	112
3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 12. 13. 14. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups		3.4.	Lenders for social purposes and the public outhoristics	112
3.4.1. Basic principle 3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			the social economy partnership
3.4.2. Practicalities 3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.4.1. Basic principle	113
3.5. Common characteristics of alternative financing organisations 3.5.1. Origins 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.4.2. Practicalities	113
3.5.2. General principles 3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 1.1 3.8. Future issues 1.2 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups		3.5.	Common characteristics of alternative financia	113
3.5.2. General principles 3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			5.5.1. Origins	114
3.5.3. Social justification 3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues 12 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.2. General principles	114
3.5.4. Social profitability 3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.3. Social justification	114
3.5.5. Partnership 3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.4. Social profitability	114
3.5.6. Proximity 3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.5. Partnership	115
3.5.7. Financial resources 3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.6. Proximity	115
3.5.8. The information and credibility gaps 3.5.9. Supplementary activities 3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.7. Financial resources	115
3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.8. The information and credibility and	115
3.5.10. Managing growth and financial assets 3.5.11. Another approach 3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 11 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 11 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.9. Supplementary activities	116
3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.5.10. Managing growth and financial	116
3.6. General characteristics of solidarity-based projects seeking finance 3.6.1. Similarities 3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.3.11. Allottier approach	116
3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups		3.6.	General characteristics of solidarity hand	117
3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by banks 3.6.3. Acquiring know-how 3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.6.1. Similarities	117
3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.6.2. The ethical use of deposits by 1	118
3.6.4. What motivates ethical savers? 3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups			3.6.3. Acquiring know-how	118
3.7. Alternative financing equals ethical financing? 3.8. Future issues 11 4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups 12			3.6.4. What motivates ethical several	118
4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups		3.7.	Alternative financing equals at 1.5	119
4. Traditional Banking and Evaluating Risk for Lending to Small Businesses and Start-Ups 12		3.8.	Future issues	119
12				119
12	4.	Tradi	tional Banking and Evaluating Rick for I
14		to Sm	Dublicooco alki Niari-i me
			Ido Reifner In F	121

Udo Reifner, Jan Evers

4.1.	The traditional approach: lending on a credit history	121
	4.1.1. Index of recent payment experiences	121
	4.1.2. Years in business	122
	4.1.3. Net worth	122
	4.1.4. Credit rating	122
	4.1.5. Legal structure	122
	4.1.6. Suits, liens, judgments	123
	4.1.7. Industry risk	123
	4.1.8. Regional economy	123
4.2.	Recent developments in mainstream banking:
	small business lending as a form of consumer lending	124
Part IV	:: Overcoming obstacles to small-firm financing:
	instruments and practical examples for solution	127
4 7 .	•	105
I. Intro	oduction	127
	Udo Reifner, Jan Evers
1.1.	Different support systems: an overview	127
	1.1.1. Is there a basis for comparison?	127
	1.1.2. Level of support related to the main problems	131
	1.1.3. Public versus private support?	131
1.2.		132
	1.2.1. Refinancing bank's small-business-loans	133
	1.2.1.1. Refinancing and loan subsidies	133
	1.2.1.2. Direct securitisation of small business loans	134
	1.2.2. State guarantees	135
	1.2.2.1. Reduced transaction costs through intermediaries	136
1.3.	Direct support for SMEs	137
	1.3.1. Subsidised interest rates	137
	1.3.2. Redemption period	137
	1.3.3. Cash flow support	138
	1.3.4. Consultancy	138
	1.3.5. Labour costs	139
	1.3.6. Low-cost work space	140
	1.3.7. Training	140
	1.3.8. Tax relief	141
1.4.	Summary of SME support	141
2. The	Ethical Bank: a Non-Profit Bank Serving the Non-Profit Economy	143
	ems of Intermediation and Interaction between the Small Micro Enterprise Sector and the Banking Sector -
	Example of the Hatton National Bank Limited (HNB)	146
	Dharma Wijesundera

3.2	Hatton National Bank Limited HNB's involvement with small and micro enterprises The inherent obstacles of rural financing addressed by barefoot banking Barefoot banking and its novel methods of overcoming these constraints 3.4.1. Assistance of non-governmental organisations (NGOs)
3.5	The salient features of the scheme which bestow upon it success in rural financing	149 150
4. Th	e Bank for Socio-Economic Initiatives (BISE)	151
	Nathalie Bolgert	131
4.1	. Idea and creation of BISE	151
4.2	. First steps and innovations	151 151
4.3	. Development towards global banking for SMEs	152
4.4	The big dilemma: "mission" or "commercialisation"	153
5. Fin	ancing Women's Micro Enterprises in Europe:
ΑF	Recommended Funding Scheme	155
	Patricia Mahot	155
5.1.	Introduction
5.2.		155
	at women entrepreneurs in Europe	155
	5.2.1. The woman entrepreneur savings account	155 156
	5.2.1.1. Description	156
	5.2.2. The woman entrepreneur savings loan	157
	5.2.2.1. Endorsement	157
5.2	5.2.3. European Loan Guarantee Fund for women entrepreneurs	158
3.3.	Conclusion Conclusion	160
V	ruments of Social and Economic Intervention for Jobs of Quality uantity - Examples by the Confederation of National
	le Unions, Quebec	161
	Léopold Beaulieu
6.1.	Developing a capacity for initiative	161
6.2.	Instruments of social and economic intervention for inter-	101
	or drame, in dramme	161
	6.2.1. A co-operative that became a mutual insurance group	161
	The state of the s	162
	oversiting co-onerance initiatives	162
	6.2.4. The Consultation Group for the Protection and Creation of Jobs 6.2.5. The Batirente Fund, the Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) of the CSN	162
6.3.	Instruments controlled by the workers	163
	0.3.1. Contributing more to this effort a series 1.1.1.	163
6.4.	For a progressive strategy centred on employment	163
12	2. anproyment	164

	6.5.	Fundamental objectives remain the same	165
7.	The	Experience of the RAFAD Foundation in Geneva	166
		RAFAD / Fernand Vincent
	7.1.	The RAFAD Guarantee Fund	166
		RAFAD's relations with Southern banks	166
		Defaults in repayment	166
		Main lessons to be drawn from RAFAD's experience	168
		Main difficulties encountered by the Foundation	168
	7.6.	Experiences of other organisations working with bank guarantees	168
8.		CRA to Community Investment Enterpreneurship: National Policying and the Decentralisation of Financial Negotiation and Investment	170
		ling and the Decentralisation of Financial Negotiation and investment. Neal Richman	170
	1	veut Monmun
	8.1.		170
		The history of the Community Reinvestment Act	171
		Institutional implementation of the CRA	172
	8.4.		173
		of South Los Angeles	1/3
		8.4.1. Development deal-maker: Concerned Citizens of South Central Los Angeles	175
		8.4.2. Advocacy/watchdog organisations: communities for	173
		accountable reinvestment	177
		8.4.3. Alternative lending institution: the South Central Federal
		People's Credit Union	178
	8.5.	Conclusion	179
9.	The (Cigale Project	181
	J	Johann Hosselar
	9.1.	The Cigale project: generating social returns	181
		9.1.1.CGER	181
		9.1.1.1. The Cigale project	181
		9.1.2. The originality of the "Cigale" project	181
		9.1.3. Operation	182
		9.1.3.1. Products	182
		9.1.3.2. Financial support and solidarity	182
		9.1.3.3. Transparency	182
		9.1.3.4. Performance	182
	9.2.	The Cigale project: distributing financial support and maximising	183
		the social returns 9.2.1. Crédal's aims	183
		9.2.2. Types of loan	183
		9.2.3. Loan applications are processed in three stages	184
		9.2.4. What is alternative lending?	185
			13

10.	The German System of Credit Guarantee Companies	187
	Jutta Meinberg
10.	1. Legal background	187
	2. Technical terms	187
10.3	3. Need for co-operation and typical clients	188
10.4	4. Size of guarantees	188
10.5	5. Subsidy through counter-guarantees	188
10.6	6. Guarantee losses	189
	7. Latest performance	189
10.8	3. Future prospects	189
11.Sho	rebank Corporation: A Private Sector Banking Initiative to R	enew Distressed Communities	190
	Joan Shapiro	150
11.1	. Executive summary	100
11.2	. The Shorebank Corporation: An Introduction	190
11.3	Summary History of Shorebank Composition	191 191
11.4	. The South Shore Neighbourhood: From Affluence to Disimonth and	191
11.5	Neighbourhood Reinvestment: From Theory to Practice	192
	11.3.1. Developing the Theory	194
	11.5.2. Bank holding company: Engine to drive renewal	195
11.6.	The Results: Twenty-Three Years of Targeted	193
	Neighbourhood Development	197
	11.6.1. Development Loans and Development Deposits sm	198
117	11.0.2.Non-bank subsidiaries	199
11.7.	The Lessons: Banks and Community Renewal	200
11.0.	Chicago Expansion: Adapting the Model beyond South Shore	201
11.9.	The Future: Examining Replicability or, "Can there be more South Shore Banks?"
	Shore Banks?"	202

References