Contents

Preface vii
Acknowledgements ix

Introduction 1
Happy families? 1
‘Pick and mix’ relationships 3
Stories we tell each other 5
About the book 7

1 Families of choice: the changing context of non-heterosexual relationships 9
The emergence of families of choice 9
From identity to relational rights 13
The politics of intimate life 19
Living ‘connected lives’ 25

2 Life experiments: the meanings of non-heterosexual relationships 28
Life stories 28
A ‘queer construct family’ 37
The heterosexual assumption 39
Self-invention 43
Everyday experiments 47

3 The friendship ethic 51
The power of friendship 51
Patterns of friendship 53
Facing fateful moments 58
The complexities of friendship 61
Differences 67
The value of commitment 69
The significance of the friendship ethic 76
4 In search of home
   The different meanings of ‘home’ 77
   First home 77
   Tales of the city 82
   Reflexive community 86
   Multiple belongings 90
   Ways of living 93
   Everyday practices 98
   Home, community and care 101

5 Partnership rites
   Couples 104
   The egalitarian ideal 109
   Living with power 114
   Intimacy and love 119
   Affirming commitment 127

6 Sexual pleasures
   The value of sex 132
   Doing gender? 138
   Undoing gender? 145
   Ethics of relating 148
   Erotics and ethical practice 153

7 Parenting
   The ‘gayby’ boom 157
   Parenting stories 160
   Parenting practices 168
   Caring practices 174
   Hazards 176
   The needs of children 178

8 Towards intimate citizenship
   The unfinished revolution 180
   The possibilities 181
   The risks 184
   Practices of freedom 186
   Assimilation or difference? 191
   Intimate citizenship 196

Appendix 1: Researching Same Sex Intimacies 200
Appendix 2: Biographies of interviewees 207
Bibliography 219
Index 235