Contents

List of figures and tables vii
Notes on contributors ix

1 Risk, citizenship and welfare: introduction 1
   ROSALIND EDWARDS AND JUDITH GLOVER

2 Social insecurity and social protection 19
   PAUL SPICKER

3 Transparent and messy contracts – how do they serve social security? 31
   ZSUZSA FERGE

4 Live and let love? Reflections on the unfinished sexual revolution of our times 48
   JEFFREY WEEKS

5 Widening the scope of social policy: families, financial services and the impact of technology 64
   JAN PAHL

6 Complex equalities – redistribution, class and gender 80
   PETER TAYLOR-GOoby

7 ‘Work for those who can, security for those who cannot’: a third way in social security reform or fractured social citizenship? 96
   RUTH LISTER

8 Managing the risk of unemployment: is welfare restructuring undermining support for social security? 111
   DAVID ABBOTT AND DEBORAH QUILGARS
9 Managing the body: competing approaches to risk assessment in community care 126
KATHRYN ELLIS AND ANN DAVIS

10 Social insecurity and the informal economy: survival strategies on a South London estate 142
DAVID SMITH AND JOHN MACNICOL

11 Social capital and waves of innovation in the risk society 157
BARBARA JONES AND BOB MILLER

Index 179
Figures and tables

Figures

3.1 Symmetry— asymmetry of power relationships related to allocative principles 37
3.2 Rationality and integrative role related to allocative principles 38
3.3 The legitimating allocative principles in the case of different real-life transactions 40
6.1 From altruism+deference to self-interest+proactivity 83
6.2 From modernism to post-modernism 87

Tables

2.1 Factors associated with accidents leading to hospital admissions 23
5.1 Six clusters by percentages of women and men using a credit card to make a purchase over a two week period 69
6.1 Income by Hope-Goldthorpe class and sex, those in full-time work 89
6.2 Average income per decile for women, men and households 90
6.3 Household income distribution for women 92