

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vi
Preface and Acknowledgements	viii
1. Young People and Community Problems	1
2. Emerging Issues for Youth and Community Safety Policy	8
3. Community and Ambiguity: Deconstructing the Policy Discourse	22
4. Agency Perspectives on Young People's Gatherings	50
5. Everybody's Talking: Young People's Accounts of the Gatherings	95
6. The School Surveys	159
7. Data and Discourses: Contrasting Images of Youthful Disorder	207
8. Community Reactions: The Residential Surveys	226
9. Conclusion	256
Bibliography	264
Index	273

List of Figures and Tables

Figure 1:	Reasons cited by young people for their annoyance with adults	176
Figure 2:	Truancy rates reported according to year group	187
Figure 3:	Young people in trouble with the Police: Reasons for police intervention	191
Figure 4:	Types of trouble at school and types of trouble with the police	193
Figure 5:	The apparent influence of different types of contact with the police on attitudes to the police	197
Figure 6:	Young people's attitudes to the police according to their types of contact with the police	198
Figure 7:	Involvement of young people in 'gathering' activity according to their school year group	200
Figure 8:	The preferences of those young people who had attended 'gatherings'	201
Figure 9:	Young people drinking and smoking locally, compared with 1987 Home Office data on teenage drinking	203
Figure 10:	Brighton: Beat 8 (Elmindean): Offences in 1995-96	219
Figure 11:	Brighton: Beat 9 (Fieldham): Offences in 1995-96	220
Figure 12:	Brighton: Beat 11 (Ashdean): Offences in 1995-96	220

Figure 13:	Hove: Beats 10 and 11 (Hilltop): Offences in 1995-96	221
Figure 14:	Residents disturbed by young people gathering or hanging around	235
Figure 15:	Types of nuisance reported by residents	240
Figure 16:	Residents complaining directly to young people, the young people's reactions	241
Figure 17:	Complaints about young people: The authorities to which they were addressed	243
Figure 18:	Criminal activity reported by residents: all three locations	247
Figure 19:	What residents felt needed to be done about youth congregating	249

Tables

Table 1:	Gender distribution within the school year groups	162
Table 2:	Leisure time preferences	163
Table 3:	Preferred leisure facilities and activities	167
Table 4:	Young people discussing their leisure time activities with parents or guardians	173
Table 5:	Why do parents disapprove?	175
Table 6:	Reasons for getting into trouble at school	183