

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	ix
1. Organizing Diversity: Evolutionary Theory, Network Analysis, and Post-socialism	1
GERNOT GRABHER and DAVID STARK
I. RECOMBINANT NETWORKS: PROPERTY TRANSFORMATION AND RESTRUCTURING OF LARGE FIRMS
2. Recombinant Property in East European Capitalism	33
DAVID STARK
3. Renegotiating the Ties that Bind: The Limits of Privatization in the Czech Republic	70
GERALD A. MCDERMOTT
4. Adaptation at the Cost of Adaptability? Restructuring the Eastern German Regional Economy	107
GERNOT GRABHER
II. ENTREPRENEURIAL NETWORKS: NEW FIRM FORMATION
5. Network Dynamics of New Firm Formation: Developing Russian Commodity Markets	135
JUDITH B. SEDAITS
6. Too Many, too Small: Small Entrepreneurship in Hungary—Ailing or Prospering?	137
ISTIVÁN R. GÁBOR
7. Towards Industrial Districts? Small-Firm Networking in Hungary	158
TIBOR KUCZI and CSABA MAKÓ
8. Regional and Local Factors in the Restructuring of South-Eastern Poland	176
JERZY HAUSNER, TADEUSZ KUDŁACZ, and JACEK SZLACHTA
	190

9. Private Entrepreneurship and Small Businesses in the Transformation of the Czech Republic	209
VLADIMÍR BENÁČEK
10. The Social and Cultural Embeddedness of Entrepreneurs in Eastern Germany	242
THOMAS KOCH AND MICHAEL THOMAS
III. POLICY NETWORKS: RESTRUCTURING INSTITUTIONS
11. The Antinomies of Privatization in Eastern Europe	265
PETER RUTLAND
12. Privatization by Means of State Bureaucracy? The Treuhand Phenomenon in Eastern Germany	284
WOLFGANG SEIBEL
13. Mediating Institutions in the Transition from State Socialism: The Case of Local Government	305
CHRIS PICKVANCE
14. Between Institutional Transfer and Legacies: Local Administrative Transformation in Eastern Germany	324
HELLMUT WOLLMANN
Index	343