

Contents

List of Tables	ix
List of Figures	xi
Preface	xiii

1	Introduction	1
---	--------------	---

I Barter Contracts in International Trade

2	Puzzling Facts and Popular Explanations	17
3	Creating Collateral	35
4	The Export Pattern: Paying with Goods	61
5	The Import Pattern: Securing Technology Transfer	77
	Appendixes to Part I	93

II Contract Enforcement in Transition Economies

6	Stylized Facts and Competing Explanations	103
7	Arrears and Barter: Extending Trade Credits	127
8	The Output Decline: The Lack of Trust and Liquidity	137
9	Confronting the Data	153
	Appendixes to Part II	167

10 Contracts in Trade and Transition: An Outlook	173
Notes	185
References	193
Index	201

List of Tables

Table 1.1	Cross-country pattern of barter in transition economies	4
Table 1.2	Estimates of countertrade in world trade	5
Table 2.1	Contract type and compensation ratio	20
Table 2.2	Pattern of trade with Eastern Europe in 1987	21
Table 2.3	Export promotion	24
Table 2.4	Contract type and region	27
Table 2.5	Market distortion and compensation ratio	28
Table 3.1	Value of collateral	58
Table 4.1	Ranking of commodity money	66
Table 4.2	Liquidity of commodity money	68
Table 4.3	Choosing collateral goods	70
Table 4.4	Creditworthiness and trade pattern	74
Table 5.1	Counterpurchase versus barter	88
Table 5.2	Determining the degree of tying	91
Table I-B	Definition of variables and sample statistics	97
Table 6.1	Barter in transition economies	105
Table 6.2	Barter and firm characteristics	107
Table 6.3	Commodity composition of barter deals	107
Table 6.4	Ownership, debt, and barter	110
Table 6.5	Barter, arrears, and efficiency	113
Table 6.6	Barter, arrears, and efficiency by firm size	114
Table 6.7	Terms of trade of the non-cash economy	115
Table 6.8	Pricing behavior of sectors	116

Table 6.9	Is Russia's economy virtual?	120
Table 6.10	Motives for barter	123
Table 7.1	Barter as credit	128
Table 7.2	Trade credit	129
Table 7.3	Barter and creditworthiness	130
Table 7.4	Barter, arrears, and liquidity squeeze	132
Table 7.5	Solving creditworthiness in cash deals	133
Table 7.6	Inverse U-curve	134
Table 8.1	Lock-in	138
Table 8.2	Close business ties	138
Table 9.1	Output decline in the former Soviet Union	156
Table 9.2	Terms of trade effects	160
Table II-B	Definition of variables and sample statistics	168
Table 10.1	Debt to GDP ratio in selected countries	174
Table 10.2	Growth of real GDP in transition economies, 1990 to 1997	176
Table 10.3	Institutional structure of East–West trade	178
Table 10.4	Macro- and microeconomic determinants of barter	181

List of Figures

- Figure 1.1 Time pattern of barter in Russia 3
- Figure 3.1 Time structure 41
- Figure 5.1 Time structure 82
- Figure 6.1 Output decline in transition economies 104
- Figure 6.2 Total arrears as percentage of annualized GDP in Russia
104
- Figure 8.1 Time sequence at production step 1 142