

Section 1: Invited Speakers

1. Women into Computing: The Need for Positive Action Now
Joanna Foster 1
2. Beyond the Great Divide
Mrs Steve Shirley, OBE 8
3. Computing in Schools: the Same Old Story
Robin Ward 14
4. Getting Women into Computing
John MacGregor 20
5. Attracting Women Returners in Computing
Baroness Platt of Writtle 22
6. Employer – Education Cooperation
Jean Irvine 29

Section II: Attitudes and Issues

7. Where Are the Girls Now?
Gillian Lovegrove, Wendy Hall 33
8. Young Women and the Culture of Software Engineering
Flis Henwood 45
9. Expert Systems – A Women’s Perspective
Margaret Bruce, Alison Adam 51
10. Removed From Power
Lyn Bryant 56
11. Why Do We Want To See More Women in Computing?
Susan Jones 59
12. Machismo and the Hacker Mentality
Laurie S. Keller 66

13. Child Care Provision in Higher Education: A Case Study
Gill Russell 72

Section III: Young Women and Education

14. Opting Out Of Technology: A Study of Girls' GCSE Choices
Philippa Buckley, Barbara Smith 80
15. Action Research: Primary Schoolgirls and New Technology
Audrey Milner 87
16. IT Teaching in Schools – Gender Bias in the Secondary School
Elaine Coleman 96
17. Girls and Computing – A Case Study
Linda Anderson 100
18. Observations of Attitudes to IT in Database Use in Schools
Janet Spavold 109
19. A Study of Computing Experiences of Female A-Level Maths Students
Judy Donnelly 119
20. Profile of Glasgow "WiC" Girls
Helen D. Watt 124
21. The Gender Gap in Secondary School Computer Use
Peter Glissov 130
22. School and Industry Links – An Example of Co-operation
Irene M. Pacitti 145

Section IV: Higher and Further Education

23. Choice and Image: Gender and Computer Studies in Higher Education
Alan Durmdell 152
24. Computer Attitudes, Interface Preference And Simple Task Performance
Konrad Morgan, Shirley Gibbs, Hamish Macleod, Robert Morris 161
25. An Analysis of Attempts to Remember that Some Students are Female
Karen Shipp, Dianne Sutton 173
26. Home-based Computing for Women Students
Gill Kirkup, Ruth Carter, Laurie S. Keller, Jenny Lewis, Chris Saxton, Dianne Sutton 188
27. Making a Place for Women in Computing
J. K. Bansal 196

28. Initiatives for Recruitment of Female Undergraduates Janet Johnson, Dave Arnold	201
29. Industrial Placements: Women's Experience Carolyn Whitesmith	208
30. Does a Masculine Management Style Deter Women Applicants? Nicky Gunson, Peter Fielder	211
31. IT: Issues including Role Models and Routes to Promotion Anne Leeming	217
32. Information Technology – Art or Science? Kathy Buckner	221
33. Women: The Hidden Users of Computers Valerie Looney	227

Section V: Women Returners

34. Encouraging Women Returners into Computing Courses in Higher Education E. C. P Sears	233
35. Women Returners and Higher Education – Initiatives at Sunderland Polytechnic Marilyn Ramshaw	240
36. Women Returners: New Initiatives and Experiences Jacquie Powney, Janet Toland	244
37. SWIM: Scottish Women Returners Study Information Technology Management Helen D. Watt	250
38. WISE UP: A New Course for Women Returners Run at Reading Jennifer Stapleton, Shirley Williams, Jane Goodwin	257
39. Women Returners: Finding the Gaps Cynthia McLain	264
40. 'Managing With Computers' at the Women and Work Programme Lisa Payne	268
41. Why do Women Normally Re-enter the Work Force? Sue Syson	273
42. The Women into Information Technology (WIT) Campaign Philip Virgo, Carol Beech, Pat Pearce	276

Section VI: Careers

43. Networking and the UK Federation of Business and Professional Women
Christine Arrowsmith 286
44. Women's Career Paths in Artificial Intelligence
Margaret Bruce, Alison Adam 294
45. Management: Practical Experiences in the UK and Canada
Valeria Edgar-Nevill 301

Section VII: WiC Activities

46. Grassroot Groups – Experiences in Horticultural Cultivation
Carole Goble, Caroline Moss 310
47. Experiences of One Day Workshops for Schoolgirls
Stephanie Wilson, Carole Goble, Daphne Tregear 317
48. Getting Women into Computing: Strategies for Overcoming Prejudice
Karen Shipp 324
49. Girls into IT at Stockton Sixth Form College, Cleveland
Sue Clark, Diane Atkins 331
50. Insight into Attitudes to Computing
P. E. File, J. Todman, P. I. Dugard 334
51. Action Stations: Let's Organise a Workshop for Schoolgirls!
Helen D. Watt 338
52. No Previous Experience Necessary
Sheila Hughes, Ann Maybrey 345
53. Southampton WiC Workshops
Gillian Lovegrove 352
54. The Edinburgh Women in Computing Workshops
D. Welch, G. Michaelson 359

Section VIII: International and Cultural

55. Scenes from Europe
Gillian Lovegrove 367
56. Women in Technology in the European Community
Dalene McShane 377
57. Gender Bias: The East-West Paradox
Loma Uden 386
58. Paradox and Practice: Gender in Computing and Engineering in Eastern Europe
Alan Durmdell 392

59. Women into Computing: Some Experience from New Zealand Colin Beardon	401
Appendix A: Bibliography	407
Appendix B: Useful Addresses	426
Author Index	427