

Contents

List of Tables viii

Acknowledgments ix

1. Introduction: Changes in Criminal Justice Organizations, Occupations, and Women's Work	1
The CJS: Mission, Processes, and Workforce	4
Historical Context of Women in Justice Occupations	5
Legal Changes	8
Reforms and Expanding Opportunities for Women	11
Women and Justice Professionalization/Deprofessionalization	14
Contents of This Book	17
A Note on Perspective and Terminology	18
2. Explanations for Gender Inequality in the Workplace	21
Past Analyses of Gender Inequality at Work	22
A Social Construction of Gender Perspective	28
The Production of Gender in Work Organizations	31
Summary	45

3. The Nature of Police Work and Women's Entry Into Law Enforcement	48
Historical Overview:
From Matron to Chief	49
The Increasing Representation of Women in Police Work	56
The Nature of Policing:
Scope of Work and Occupational Culture	59
The Police Culture and Men's Opposition to Women Officers	63
Barriers to Women Officers:
Interaction, Ideology, and Images	67
Summary	72
4. Women Officers Encountering the Gendered Police Organization	75
Gendered Organizational Logic:
Policies and Practices	76
Doing Gender on the Street:
Dilemmas of Police-Citizen Encounters	88
Women's Response:
Adaptations, Costs, and Survival Strategies	93
Summary	101
5. Women Entering the Legal Profession: Change and Resistance	103
Historical Overview:
Barriers to Women in Law Before 1970	105
Changing Laws and Job Queues:
Opening Legal Practice to Women	108
Lawyers' Jobs, Specialties, and the Division of Legal Labor	115
Gendered Legal Occupational Culture and Barriers to Women	123
Summary	126
6. The Organizational Logic of the Gendered Legal World and Women Lawyers' Responses	129
Gender Bias in Law School, Recruitment, and Hiring	131
Gender Bias in the Firm, Office, and Agency	133
The Impact of Gender Bias on Women Attorneys in Court and Beyond	136

Organizational Logic and Limiting Opportunity Structures	142
Women's Responses to Gender Bias: Adaptation and Innovation	147
Summary	154
7. Women in Corrections: Advancement and Resistance	157
History of Women in Corrections: 1860s to 1960s	158
Social Change and Changing Queues for Women COs: 1960s to the Present	160
Women's Movement Into CO Jobs in Men's Prisons	163
Characteristics of Women COs in Men's Prisons	165
CO Jobs as a Resource for Doing Gender	168
Sites of Struggle: Gendered Interactions, Gendered Identities	173
Summary	181
8. Gendered Organizational Logic and Women CO Response	183
Social Context and Organizational Logic of Corrections: 1980-1990s	184
Inadequate Implementation of Reform Agenda Gendered Organizational Logic and Women's Careers	186
190
Women's Response: Performance, Adaptation, and Innovation	197
Summary	205
9. Doing Justice, Doing Gender, Today and Tomorrow: Occupations, Organizations, and Change	208
Our Theoretical Approach: A Recap	209
Comparison of Opportunities, Barriers, and Women's Responses	210
Do Women Make a Difference?	216
Building Feminist Theory and Policy	224
References	227
List of Cases Cited	248
Author Index	249
Subject Index	255
About the Authors	269

List of Tables

TABLE 3.1: Women Officers in Municipal Policing by Agency Size: 1980-1993	57
TABLE 3.2: Full-Time Sworn Local Police, Sheriff's Deputies, and State Police in 1990 by Gender and Race-Ethnicity	58
TABLE 4.1: Assignments of Sample Officers in Four Municipal Departments by Gender	83
TABLE 5.1: The Employment Distribution of Men and Women Lawyers in 1980	116
TABLE 6.1: Percentage of Women Lawyers Reporting Inappropriate Behaviors in State Gender Bias Reports	137
TABLE 6.2: Percentage of Women Lawyers Reporting Disparagement and Harassment by Workplace	139
TABLE 7.1: Comparison of Employment of Women COs in Men's Facilities: 1978-1988	166
TABLE 8.1: 1988 Percentage of Women COs by Men's Facility Security Level	194