

Contents

List of figures	page ix
Acknowledgements	x
1 Introduction	1
1 Premises and prepossessions	3
Why study public events?	9
Some basic features of public events	10
The positioning of performance	17
Proto-events	20
2 Models and mirrors	22
Events that model the lived-in world	23
Events that present the lived-in world	41
Events that re-present the lived-in world	49
Qualifications	58
3 Precariousness in play	63
Predicaments in play: the laughter of the Ik	72
Events and societies	76
2 Proto-events	83
Intersections	85
4 The donkey game	86
Play in the workshop	89
The donkey game – a tell-tail sign	93
Hanging tails on the angels	95
The sign of the tail	97
Intersections	102
5 Banana time	104
‘Times’ and ‘themes’ in the workplace	105
The integration of ‘times’ and ‘themes’	107
3 Public events	113
Intersections	115

6	The Palio of Siena	116
	Comune , city, contrade	117
	The Madonna	120
	The contrada and the horse	122
	The sequence of occasions in the festival model: frames of integration and opposition	126
	The parade and the race	129
	Alternative views	132
	Intersections	136
7	Christmas mumming in Newfoundland	138
	Interior and exterior attributes of person and community	139
	The mumming complex in outport Newfoundland	145
	Time, space, and control in mumming	148
	Inside-out, outside-in: inversion and congruency in mumming	152
	Convergence and divergence, concealment and revelation	155
	Intersections	160
8	Holiday celebrations in Israeli kindergartens (Co-author, Lea Shamgar-Handelman)	162
	Kindergarten and celebration in Israel	165
	Kindergarten celebrations	168
	Conclusions	187
	Intersections	190
9	State ceremonies of Israel – Remembrance Day and Independence Day (Co-author, Elihu Katz)	191
	The unit of comparison: sirens and fireworks	192
	The dating of days, the shaping of space: aspects of Zionist cosmologic	194
	Opening Remembrance Day: closing ranks and the struggle for renewal	202
	Opening Independence Day: the glories of pluralism	212
	National cosmology and the encoding of time	223
	Intersections	234
10	Symbolic types – clowns	236
	‘In process’: the clown at a Pakistani wedding	238
	The clown as a symbolic type	240
	The clown type and the boundary	245
	Attributes of Pueblo Indian clowns	248
	Hopi clown and kachina : opposition and reconciliation	251
	Anti-structure and process	255
	The Dance of Man: clown, boundary, process, and anti-structure	256
	Conclusion	263
	Epilogue: towards media events	266
	Notes	270
	Bibliography	301
	Index	302

Figures

1	Self-regulation in Chisungu	35
2	Further feedback in Chisungu	36
3	Systemic design in Chisungu	38
4	Relationships among types of public events	61
5	Levels in the Palio model: hierarchy and fragmentation	126
6	The Palio model: transformations through parade and race	129
7	The opening ceremony of Remembrance Day, spatial layout	203
8	The opening ceremony of Independence Day, spatial layout	213