

Contents

Preface v

Contributors vii

Chapter 1 Introduction and Overview by Kenneth Cox 1

Chapter 2 Legal Aspects and Considerations by David Bonsall 13

Outline of a typical structure 13

Nature of the assets to be securitised 15

Type of mortgage 16

Other considerations 19

Collateral security 19

Non-mortgage assets 20

The special purpose issuing vehicle (SPV) 21

Ownership of the SPV 22

Officers of the SPV 23

Other considerations 24

Transferring assets to the SPV and taking security over those assets 24

Administration/servicing 35

Insolvency considerations 36

Issuer insolvency 36

Issuer's exposure to third party insolvency 37

Profit extraction 39

Regulatory and other considerations 40

Listing and selling restrictions 42

Responsibility for information 43

Conclusion 43

Chapter 3 Tax Issues by Ben Staveley 44

Tax position of the originator before securitisation 44

Taxation effects of the sale of mortgages and collateral security to the vehicle	46
Tax treatment of the expenses of establishing the transaction	49
Taxation of the vehicle during the life of the transaction	52
VAT	56
Tax treatment of the securities issued by the vehicle	57
Tax implications of returning profit to the originator	58
Conclusion	66
Typical tax description from an offering document	67
Chapter 4 Profile of a Specialist Mortgage Lender by Robert Weir	71
Introduction	71
Organisation of an issue	73
Administration of live issues	87
Summary	89
Chapter 5 What Securitisation can mean for a Commercial Bank by Bruce Gaitskell	91
Commercial banks and securitisation	91
Bank of England notice on loan transfers and securitisation	105
Chapter 6 Securitisation and Building Societies—a Threat or Benefit? by Robert Neill	108
Draft code of practice on certain aspects of the transfer of mortgages by building societies or their associated bodies	117
Chapter 7 A Merchant Banker views the Market by Paul Orchart	120
Chapter 8 How Rating Agencies view Asset-backed Debt by Lionel Marsland-Shaw and Donald Selzer	131
Standard & Poor's Corporation's philosophy	131
Moody's Investors Service Inc's approach	145
Chapter 9 Opportunities and Risks—an Insurance Company Perspective by Stephen Haines	167
Mortgage origination	168
Relationship with funds providers	169
Insurance product opportunities	170
Pool insurance	171
Pool insurance versus senior/subordinated structures	172
Conclusion	174
Chapter 10 The Role of the Trustee in Issues of UK Mortgage-backed Securities by Anthony Buckland and Julie Craik	176
Introduction: the concept of corporate trustees	176

Trustees and trust companies 180
 The structure of mortgage-backed securities 182
 Trustee and agency components of the issue 184
 Trustee relationships: the issue 188
 Trustee relationships: the security 191
 Funding arrangements 194
 The security interests of the trustee and enforcement of the issue 196

Chapter 11 Topical Issues in a Developing Market by Nigel Terrington 200

Market development versus diversification 200
 Whole loan sales 203
 CMO 204
 Pre-payments 206
 Actual pre-payment experience 208
 Profit extraction and off-balance sheet considerations 212
 Servicing/administration fee 215
 Dividends 216
 Subordinated loan interest 216
 Management charges 217
 Servicing strip 218
 Broking fees 218
 Deferred consideration 218
 Interest rate swaps 219

Chapter 12 Accounting Treatment by Michael Wildig 225

Introduction 225
 Overview of key accounting issues 226
 Current and proposed accounting and supervisory rules 229
 Application to specific transaction structures and arrangements 234
 Overview of securitisation accounting under US GAAP 237
 The future 240

Chapter 13 Asset-backed Securitisation by Joseph Smallman and Michael Selby 242

Introduction 242
 Overview of asset-backed securities (ABS) 242
 Understanding the ABS value and cash flows 253
 Asset-backed securitisation in Europe 262
 Conclusion 264

Chapter 14 Securitisation in France: Titrification by Michel Quéré 265

Introduction: the background 265
 The purpose of the law 266

The 'fonds commun de créances' 268
The setting up and functioning of the FCC 270
The units 273
The transfer of debts mechanism 274
The protection of the unit holders 277
Tax aspects 278
Conclusion 280

Chapter 15 Towards Securitisation—Trends in the International Financial Markets by John Van Deventer 288

Background 288
Application to the banking industry 289
Portfolio optimisation 291
Sourcing new capital 293
The sequence of evolution 293
Towards an international securitisation market 295
Conclusion 297

Appendix 1 Summary Terms of Outstanding Sterling Floating Rate
Collateralised Issues 304

Appendix 2 Bank of England Notice to Institutions Authorised under the Banking Act 1987 312

Appendix 3 Statement of Practice on the Transfer of Mortgages 326

Index 329