

Contents

| | |
|--------------|-----|
| Contributors | vii |
| Preface | xi |

Part I The past: the historical perspective

| | |
|--|----|
| 1. A biography of self-development Mike Pedler | 3 |
| 2. Self-development: from humanism to deconstruction Steve Fox | 20 |

Part II The present: current practices

| | |
|--|-----|
| 3. Culture change through individual development: a story of the Life Business Workshop Stephen Merckx and Dennis Bumstead | 39 |
| 4. Getting off the ground with self-development Sue Pritchard and Mike Nenciñi | 54 |
| 5. Fit for the Future Sheila McLeod and Tom Jennings | 67 |
| 6. Why personal development workshops? Peter Callender | 84 |
| 7. Opening up learning in the Prudential Naomi Stanford | 93 |
| 8. Learning resources centres Julie Dorrell | 106 |
| 9. Open learning at W H Smith Bob Johnson | 114 |
| 10. Corporate strategy and individual development in Hoechst UK Barry Allen | 121 |
| 11. Management learning contracts: the training triangle George Boak and Peter Joy | 135 |
| 12. Using personal construct psychology in self-development Fay Fransella and John Porter | 146 |

Part III The future: challenges and questions

| | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 13. | Organizational effectiveness and self-development: the essential tension | 163 |
| | Robert Adlam and Michael Plumridge | |
| 14. | Your inner team: dealing with internal differences | 176 |
| | Jacky Underwood | |
| 15. | The hot potato: a view of women's development | 190 |
| | Pauline Kidd and Sally Watson | |
| 16. | Can opportunities ever be equal? | 198 |
| | Maggie Smith and Janice Leary | |
| 17. | The learning community | 208 |
| | Roy Canning and Judith Martin | |
| 18. | Using consultants to integrate management and organizational development | 221 |
| | Ita O'Donovan | |
| 19. | Towards a working definition of a learning organization | 234 |
| | Margaret Attwood and Noel Beer | |
| 20. | What price the learning organization in the public sector? | 252 |
| | John Edmonstone | |
| | Index | 279 |