

Contents

List of figures	viii
Notes on contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction: coming to terms with Anthony Giddens Christopher G.A. Bryant and David Jary	1
2 The California–Massachusetts strain in structuration theory Alan Sica	32
3 Power–knowledge and social theory: the systematic misrepresentation of contemporary French social theory in the work of Anthony Giddens Roy Boyne	52
4 Structuration theory as a world-view Richard Kilminster	74
5 ‘Society as time-traveller’: Giddens on historical change, historical materialism and the nation-state in world society David Jary	116
6 Time and space in Giddens’ social theory John Urry	160
7 The dialogical model of applied sociology Christopher G.A. Bryant	176
8 Structuration theory: past, present and future Anthony Giddens	201
Bibliography I: principal works of Anthony Giddens	222
Bibliography II: other works	230
Index	244

Figures

1.1	Key concepts of structuration theory and functionalism compared	9
1.2	Stratification model of consciousness and action	9
1.3	Analytical elements of the process of structuration	10
5.1	Structure, agency and historicity in Giddens' sociology	120
5.2	Social integration and system integration	123
5.3	Giddens' D-D-L-S model of institutions	124
5.4	Class-divided societies and class societies	127
5.5	Typology of societies	129
5.6	Intersocietal systems in 'world-time'	130
5.7	Traditional, absolutist and modern nation-states	134-5
5.8	Modern social movements	140
5.9	Duality of structure in Giddens' 'world-view'	145
5.10	Causal IEMP model of organized power	154