

Contents

Part two Limitations of Western techniques in the management of organizations in developing countries
7 The applicability of Western management techniques in developing countries: a cultural perspective Alfred M. Jaeger	131
8 Limitations to the application of socio-technical systems in developing countries Moses N. Kiggundu	146
9 Will China adopt Western management practices? Shirley C. Zhuang and Arthur M. Whitehill	163
10 Indian organizations: value dilemmas in managerial roles Indira J. Parikh and Pulin K. Garg	175
Part three Developing indigenous perspectives: work motivation and organizational leadership in developing countries
11 Work alienation in developing countries: Western models and Eastern realities Rabindra N. Kanungo	193
12 Holistic strategies for worker dis-alienation in developing countries Kalburgi M. Srinivas	209
13 Performance management in developing countries Manuel Mendonca and Rabindra N. Kanungo	223
14 A model of effective leadership styles in India Jai B. P. Sinha	252
15 Management of development in tribal cultures: ideology and leadership Sitakant Mahapatra	264
16 Managing political modernization: charismatic leadership in the developing countries James Woycke	275
17 Summary and conclusions: in search of indigenous management Alfred M. Jaeger and Rabindra N. Kanungo	287
Index	297

Figures

1.1	External and internal environmental factors influencing organizational effectiveness	4
4.1	Dimensions of effectiveness criteria	67
4.2	Salience of effectiveness criteria over the life-cycle	68
4.3	State-owned enterprise transitions through the life-cycle in eastern Africa	70
6.1	Cultural configuration framework	107
6.2	Sample of organizations used in field studies, level of economic development, and cultural configuration	110
11.1	An explanatory model of worker alienation in India	206
14.1	Model of effective leadership style	253

Tables

1.1	Dimensions on which organizations in developed and developing countries differ	8
3.1	A partial list of the major organizations in the management of structural adjustment in Uganda	44
4.1	Autonomy index for state-owned enterprises	73
4.2	Data on effectiveness criteria for SOEs	76
5.1	Strategic phases in Unicamp's development	86
6.1	Themes and cultural dimensions in descriptive studies of organizations	105
6.2	Application of configurations in developing countries	115
7.1	Some common American management terminology and practices	137
13.1	Suggested managerial conduct during the performance management process to overcome inhibiting effects of the work culture	240
14.1	Relationship among leadership styles in three countries	257
14.2	Relationship between leadership styles and effectiveness and satisfaction under the condition of low preparedness of the subordinates to participate	260
14.3	Relationship between leadership styles and effectiveness and satisfaction under the condition of high preparedness of the subordinates to participate	261