

Contents

Preface xv

PART 1

The Foundations of Community Corrections 1

1 The Offender in the Community 1

Criminals in Our Midst 2

Offenders Among Us: An Entirely Normal Circumstance 3

How Offenders in the Community Behave 5

Supervision Methods Applied to Offenders
in the Community 9

Enforcement of Conditions 9

Case Management 10

Counseling and Assistance 11

The Study of Community Corrections 11

The Systems Perspective 12

The Evidence Perspective 12

The Bureaucratic Perspective 13

The People Perspective 13

Summary 14

2 Key Concepts and Ideas in Community-Based Corrections 17

Corrections as Part of the Criminal Justice System 19

The Legislative Phase of Criminal Justice 19

The Apprehension Phase 24

The Adjudication Phase 24

The Correctional Phase 25

Community-Based Corrections as Part of the Corrections Subsystem 25

Community Corrections: Defining the Major Strategies 26

Diversion 27

Probation 27

Intermediate Sanctions 28

Early Release 28

Parole 29

The Objectives of Corrections 29

The Punishment Function 29

The Crime Prevention Function 30

The Objectives of Community Corrections 32

Key Expectations of Community Corrections 36

Changing Offenders 37

Punishing Offenders 37

Controlling Offenders 38

Managing Offenders 38

Key Controversies in Community Corrections 39

Leniency Versus Toughness 39

Bias in Decision Making 40

Net Widening and Social Control 41

Measuring Recidivism 41

Summary 41

3 Offenders in the Community Through History 45

Predemocratic Correctional Practice 47

The Development of the Democratic Ideal 51

The Origins of Parole 53

The History and Development of Probation 55

Benefit of Clergy 56

Judicial Reprieve 56

Recognizance 57

John Augustus 57

Philosophies of the Offender in the Community
Through History 58

The Reform Era 59

The Rehabilitation Era 60

The Reintegration Era 61

The War on Crime 62

The Origins of Intermediate Sanctions 63

Summary 64

4 The Classification of Crimes and Criminals 67

The Importance of Classification 68

Classifying the Offender 70

Risk 71

Needs 72

Suitability for Treatment 74

The Aim of Offender-Based Classifications:

The Crime Prevention Function 74

Classifying the Offense 75

Offense Seriousness Scales 76

Violent Crimes Versus Nonviolent Crimes 77

Drug Offenses 79

Sex Offenses 80

The Aim of Offense-Based Classifications:

The Punishment Function 81

Placing the Offender in Community Corrections 82

Exclusions Based upon Offense 82

Exclusions Based upon Offender Characteristics 84

Program Salience (Responsivity) 84

Problems in Classifying Offenders 85

Overlap and Ambiguity in Classification Systems 85

Sociopolitical Pressures and Classification 86

Distinctions in the Criteria for Classifying Offenders 86

Summary 87

PART 2

The Functions of Community Corrections 90

5 Offenders Under Diversion 90

The Philosophy of Diversion 91

Historical Background of Diversion 92

Goals and Benefits of Diversion 93

Problems with Diversion 94

Diversion at Various Stages of the Justice System 96

Diversion from Arrest 97

Diversion from Prosecution 98

Diversion from Jail 102

Diversion from Imprisonment 103

Restitution and Community Service 104

Background of Restitution 104

Benefits of Restitution 105

Background of Community Service 108

Benefits of Community Service 111

Diversion of Drug Offenders 116

The TASC Program 117

DTAP Program 117

Drug Diversion in Australia 118

Drug Courts 120

Diversion and Community Corrections 121

How Diversion Serves the System 121

Diversion Bureaucracies 122

Evidence About Diversion Programs 124

The Future of Diversion 124

Summary 127

6 Probation 131

The Organization of Probation Today 136

Should Probation Be Centralized or Decentralized? 137

Who Should Administer Probation? 137

Should Probation Be Combined with Parole? 137

The Two Functions of Probation: Investigation and Supervision 139

The Investigation Function 141

Purpose 141

Contents 142

Reliability and Validity 144

Sentencing Recommendations 144

Disclosure 145

Private PSIs 145

Getting Probation 155

Intensive Probation Supervision 155

Felony Probation 156

The Supervision Function 158

The Conditions of Probation 158

Reporting 159

Enforcing the Terms of Probation 160

The Probation Officer 162

The Offender 163

The Bureaucracy 164

| | |
|---|------------|
| Special Needs of Women Offenders | 165 |
| What Must Be Done | 166 |
| Drugs and Probation Supervision | 167 |
| Federal Probation | 169 |
| Advantages of Probation | 169 |
| Lower Cost | 169 |
| Maintains Community Ties | 169 |
| Promotes Rehabilitation | 170 |
| Reduces Stigmatization | 170 |
| Avoids Criminalization | 170 |
| Disadvantages of Probation | 170 |
| Protection of Community Compromised | 170 |
| Justice Concerns | 170 |
| Possible Abuse of Discretion by Judges and Probation Officers | 171 |
| Research on Probation Effectiveness | 171 |
| Supervision Effectiveness | 172 |
| Revocation and Termination of Probation | 174 |
| The Future of Probation | 175 |
| Summary | 177 |
| 7 Parole | 181 |
| Getting Out of Prison | 182 |
| Origins of Parole | 183 |
| Parole Release | 185 |
| Different Kinds of Parole Release | 190 |
| Mandatory Release | 190 |
| Discretionary Release | 191 |
| Other Kinds of Prison Release Programs | 193 |
| Pardon | 194 |
| Amnesty | 195 |
| Commutation | 195 |
| Reprieve | 195 |
| Furlough | 196 |
| Work Release | 197 |
| Shock Parole | 197 |
| How Parole Works | 197 |
| Parole Eligibility | 199 |
| The Preparole Investigation | 200 |
| The Parole Hearing | 202 |
| Preparing for Release | 203 |
| The Parole Board | 204 |

The Organization of Releasing Authorities 204

Autonomous Versus Consolidated 205

Field Services 206

Full-Time Versus Part-Time 206

Appointment 206

Parole Board and Officer Liability 207

Truth in Sentencing 208

Postrelease Supervision 209

The Strangeness of Reentry 213

The Problem of Unmet Personal Needs 214

Barriers to Success 214

Employment 214

Stigmatization 216

Civil Disabilities 216

Restoring the Rights of Ex-Offenders 219

Aftercare 219

Revocation 222

Street Time 223

Advantages of Parole 224

Lower Cost 224

Controls the Prison Population 224

Mitigates Harshness of Sentencing Codes 224

Restitution 224

Rehabilitation 225

Disadvantages of Parole 225

Increased Risk to the Community 225

Justice Is Not Served 225

Rehabilitation Is Not Working 225

Abuse of Discretion 225

Should Parole Be Eliminated? 225

The Effectiveness of Parole 226

Summary 228

8 Intermediate Sanctions 231

Historical Background of Intermediate Sanctions 232

Purposes of Intermediate Sanctions 233

The Case for Intermediate Sanctions 233

Unnecessary Imprisonment 234

Limitations of Probation 235

Improving Justice 235

| | |
|--------------------------------------|-----|
| The Continuum of Sanctions Concept | 236 |
| Problems with Intermediate Sanctions | 237 |
| Agencies | 237 |
| Offenders | 238 |
| Widening the Net | 238 |
| Varieties of Intermediate Sanctions | 239 |
| Judicial Programs | 242 |
| Probation Supervision Programs | 246 |
| Corrections-Administered Programs | 255 |
| Evaluation of Intermediate Sanctions | 258 |
| Sentencing Issues | 260 |
| Selection of Offenders | 261 |
| Surveillance and Control | 263 |
| The New Corrections Professional | 264 |
| The Future of Intermediate Sanctions | 258 |
| Summary | 265 |

PART 3

The Aims of Community Corrections 270

9 Community Corrections 270

| | |
|--|-----|
| The Fiscal Politics of Community Corrections | 272 |
| The Enabling Legislation of Community Corrections Acts | 274 |
| Local Alternatives to Imprisonment | 274 |
| The Target Group and the Payback Formula | 274 |
| Exploring the Assumptions of Community Corrections | 275 |
| Target Group | 275 |
| Funding Source | 277 |
| Programming Level | 281 |
| Accountability | 284 |
| Why Community Corrections Is a Growing Idea | 286 |
| Problems Faced by the Community Corrections Approach | 286 |
| The Future of Intermediate Sanctions and Community Corrections | 289 |
| Summary | 289 |

10 The Juvenile Offender in the Community 292

| | |
|--|-----|
| Important Differences Between Adult and Juvenile Offenders | 294 |
| Juveniles Are Young and May Easily Change | 295 |

Juveniles Have a High Rate of Desistance from Crime 296
Juveniles' Families Are an Important Part of Their Lives 296
Juveniles Are Easily Influenced by Their Peers 298
Juveniles Have Little Responsibility for Anyone
Other Than Themselves 299

Juveniles Who Do Not Fit the Usual Pattern of Juvenile Behavior 300

The Development of the Juvenile Court 303

Juvenile Community Corrections 306

Juvenile Probation 307
Privatized Juvenile Probation 309
Juvenile Aftercare 310
Intermediate Sanctions for Juveniles 311

Juvenile Community Corrections Acts 313

Special Juvenile Correctional Programs 316

Diversion 316
Restitution and Community Service 317
Intensive Probation Supervision for Juveniles 317
Home Confinement and Electronic Monitoring 318
Balanced Probation 318
School Probation Programs 319
Community Volunteers 319

The Prospects of Supervising Juveniles in the Community 320

Summary 321

11 Managing the Offender in the Community 324

The Risk Management Function 326

Background of Risk Assessment 326

The Concept of Risk 327

The Theory of Risk Management 328

Measuring Risk 330

Type I and Type II Error 333

Managing Risk 334

Supervision Levels 335
Supervision Continuum 335
Structured Enforcement 337

Case Management Systems 338

Classification: Risk and Needs Assessment 339
Supervision Planning 339
Workload Accounting 340

| | |
|---|------------|
| Risk Management and Public Accountability | 342 |
| Issues in the Risk Management Function | 342 |
| The Effectiveness of Risk Control | 343 |
| The Inevitability of Error | 344 |
| The Professional Role of the Case Manager | 345 |
| New and Emerging Case Management Approaches | 346 |
| Summary | 347 |
| 12 Reducing Risk Through Correctional Treatment | 349 |
| The Debate About Risk Reduction | 350 |
| Arguments Against the Treatment Ideal | 351 |
| Problems with the Devaluation of Treatment | 353 |
| How Meta-Analysis Works | 353 |
| What the Meta-Analyses Tell Us | 355 |
| The Meta-Analysis of Risk Indicators | 355 |
| Meta-Analysis of Treatment Programs and Their Outcomes | 356 |
| Reliability of the New Meta-Analyses of Treatments | 360 |
| Treatment Programs for Special Problems of Offenders | 361 |
| Drug-Abusing Offenders | 361 |
| Sex Offenders | 362 |
| Mentally Ill Offenders | 364 |
| Low-Intelligence Offenders | 365 |
| Lifestyle Offenders | 365 |
| Special Supervision Programs | 366 |
| The Future of Risk Reduction | 367 |
| Summary | 368 |
| 13 Promoting Justice in the Community | 371 |
| Justice, Crime, and Society | 372 |
| What Is Justice? | 380 |
| Justice as a Sanction | 381 |
| Justice as Problem Solving | 382 |
| Justice as Restoration of Community Life | 382 |
| A Community Corrections View of Justice | 382 |
| Sanctioning Systems | 383 |
| Problem Solving in Community Justice | 386 |
| Restoration of the Community | 389 |
| The Tasks of the Offender | 390 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| The Tasks of the Victim | 391 |
| The Tasks of the Community | 391 |
| Issues in the Pursuit of Justice in the Community | 392 |
| Three Arguments in Favor of Community Justice | 392 |
| Three Questions About Community Justice | 396 |
| The Future of Community Justice | 399 |
| Summary | 399 |
| 14 The Future of the Offender in the Community | 402 |
| Four Forces That Will Shape the Future | 404 |
| Politics | 404 |
| Technology | 405 |
| Economy | 406 |
| Crime | 407 |
| Six Questions to Ponder About the Supervision of Offenders in the Community | 407 |
| The Offender in the Community: An Opportunity | 411 |
| Glossary | 413 |
| Index | 419 |