

CONTENTS

Chapter 1

Teachers – A Central Policy Concern	7
The Spotlight on Teachers	7
Teachers, Teaching, and Education	8
The Political Context	10
Notes and References	14

Chapter 2

Teachers in OECD Countries: Some Basic Facts and Issues	15
Introduction: Diversity of Sources and Definitions	15
The Size of the Teaching Force	16
Teacher Numbers: A Shrinking Profession?	18
Falling Pupil/Teacher Ratios	22
The Age Factor: The “Greying” of the Teaching Force	24
The Position of Women in Teaching	28
Notes and References	39

Chapter 3

Teaching as a Profession: Its Attractiveness and the Issue of Supply	43
Introduction	43
The Professional Nature of Teaching	43
The Attractiveness of Teaching and Ensuring Adequate Supply	51
Future Developments	61
Notes and References	66

Chapter 4

The Teaching Process: Research and Policy	69
Introduction	69
The Research Review	70
Teacher Education and Training	80
Teacher Assessment	86
Notes and References	92

Chapter 5

New Tasks and Challenges	97
An Extended Role for the Teacher	97
Specific Tasks and Challenges	100
Notes and References	109

The Teacher Today: An Overview of the Problem	111
Teachers in the Spotlight	111
Conditions and Rewards	112
New Challenges and Demands	113
Signs of Shortage	114
Maintaining Teacher Quality: Selection, Preparation, and Appraisal	116
Information and Research: Questions on the Agenda	117
The Search for Consensus	118

LIST OF TABLES

1. Total Numbers of Teachers in OECD Countries, by Level: 1986/87	17
2. Evolution of Births in Selected Years: 1960-1987	19
3. Numbers of Young People Aged 5-9, 10-14, and 15-19 years in OECD Countries: 1960, 1970, 1980, 1987	20
4. The Percentage of Women Teachers in OECD Countries, by Level of Education: 1986/87	29
5. Female Labour Force Participation Rates: 1967-1987, and the Female Share of Total Employment: 1987	30
6. Proportion of the Age Group in Third Level (Higher) Education: A) New Entrants for the Corresponding Age Group; 1986: B) Total Enrolments as a Proportion of the 20-24 Age Group: 1971, 1975, 1986	50
7. Teachers' Salaries in Primary and Secondary Education in Selected EEC Countries: Ratios of Minimum to Maximum Levels and Possible Age for Attaining the Maximum	58