

Contents

Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1
1 Towards a Definition of Bonded Labour	9
1.1 Debt Bondage, Decommodification and Unfreedom	10
1.2 Bonded Labour as Deproletarianization	13
1.3 What Bonded Labour Is Not	14
1.4 Methodological Considerations	17
1.5 Unfreedom, the Law and the State	18
1.6 Coercion and Enforcement	20
1.7 Intergenerational Debt Transfers and Unfreedom	22
1.8 Kinship, Migration and Unfreedom	23
1.9 Work Intensity, Wage Levels and Unfreedom	24
1.10 Conclusion	27
Notes	30
PART I – Case Studies
2 Bonded Labour in Eastern Peru	47
2.1 Debt Bondage in Pre-Reform La Convención	48
2.2 Debt Bondage, Labour Rent and Class Struggle	50
2.3 Debt Bondage, Feudalism and Nationalism	52
2.4 Debt Bondage in Post-Reform La Convención	53
2.5 Patterns/Results of Worker Indebtedness	55
2.6 Actual/Fictive Kinship and the Discourse of ‘Reciprocity’	57
2.7 Actual/Fictive Kinship, Debt Enforcement and Local Workers	58
2.8 Actual/Fictive Kinship, Debt Enforcement and Migration	60
2.9 Bonded Labour and Agrarian Capitalist Restructuring	61
2.10 Conclusion	63
Notes	65
3 Bonded Labour in Northwestern India	80
3.1 Pre-Green Revolution Labour Attachment	80
3.2 Post-Green Revolution Labour Attachment	82
3.3 Attached Labour and Commercial Agriculture	82

3.4	Capitalism, Unfree Labour and Migration in Punjab	83
3.5	Bonded Labour and Capitalist Restructuring in Punjab	85
3.6	Village A, Karnal District, Haryana	87
3.7	Village B, Karnal District, Haryana	90
3.8	Village C, Rohtak District, Haryana	91
3.9	Village D, Rohtak District, Haryana	93
3.10	Village E, Rohtak District, Haryana	94
3.11	Conclusion	95
	Notes	99

4 Bonded Labour in Northeastern India 110

4.1	Feudalism, Capitalism and Debt Bondage in Bihar	110
4.2	Bonded Labour and Migration in Bihar	112
4.3	Debt Bondage and Sharecropping in Bihar	114
4.4	Bonded Labour in Nalanda District, Bihar	117
4.5	Village A, Nalanda District	118
4.6	Village B, Nalanda District	120
4.7	Village C, Nalanda District	122
4.8	Bonded Labour in Purnia District, Bihar	124
4.9	Unfreedom, Gender and Migration in Purnia District	125
4.10	Conclusion	126
	Notes	130

PART II – Debates

5 Neoclassical and Marxist Approaches to Capitalism and Unfree Labour 145

5.1	Neoclassical Economic Historiography and Unfree Labour	146
5.2	Neoclassical Economic Historiography, Capitalism and 'Consent'	149
5.3	Marxism, Free Labour and Capitalism	151
5.4	Marxism and Unfree Labour	152
5.5	Unfree Labour and the Mode of Production Debate	153
5.6	Unfree Labour and the 'Semi-Feudal' Thesis	154
5.7	Unfree Labour and Agrarian Transformation	156
5.8	Unfreedom and Labour Availability	157
5.9	The Recent History of Deproletarianization	158
5.10	Deproletarianization and Capitalist Profitability	160
5.11	Deproletarianization and Class Struggle	161
5.12	Conclusion	163
	Notes	165

6 The Latin American Enganche System	182
6.1 Unfree Labour and Legislative Abolition	184
6.2 Debt Peonage and Coercion	185
6.3 Debt Peonage as Deception	187
6.4 Debt Peonage as Economic Security	188
6.5 Debt Peonage as Reverse Bondage	189
6.6 Debt Peonage and Physical Mobility	190
6.7 Debt Peonage as a Voluntary Relation	191
6.8 Unfreedom, Subsistence and the Company Store	193
6.9 Debt Peonage and the Class Structure	196
6.10 Debt Peonage and Class Formation	197
6.11 Debt Peonage and Class Struggle	199
6.12 Conclusion	200
Notes	202
7 Attached Labour in India	217
7.1 Unfree Labour as Economic Security in the 1800s	218
7.2 Attached Labour as Economic Security in the 1920s	219
7.3 Attached Labour as Economic Security in the 1950s	220
7.4 Attached Labour as a Voluntary Relation	221
7.5 Attached Labour as Reciprocity and Patron-Clientage	223
7.6 Patronage and 'Patronage'	226
7.7 'Patronage' and Class Struggle	228
7.8 Assertiveness as Worker Empowerment	230
7.9 Powerful Labourers, Weak Employers	231
7.10 Assertiveness as Proletarianization	232
7.11 Conclusion	234
Notes	238
8 Unfree Labour, Culture and Nationalism	255
8.1 Unfreedom as Cultural Empowerment	257
8.2 Bonded Labour and Everyday-Forms-of-Resistance	258
8.3 Bonded Labour in (Postmodern) Theory	259
8.4 Bonded Labour as Empowering Cultural 'Otherness'	260
8.5 Politically Non-Specific Empowerment: Arguments Against	262
8.6 Unfreedom, Semi-Feudalism and Nationalism	265
8.7 Agrarian Populist/(Conservative) Myths of Empowerment	267
8.8 Populist/(Nationalist) Myths of an Empowered Third World 'Other'	270
8.9 Unfreedom and Post-War Capitalist Development	272

8.10	Divide et Impera: Unfreedom, Culture and Nationalism	273
8.11	Conclusion	275
	Notes	279
Conclusion		295
Bibliography		305
Author Index		333
Subject Index		340