

Table of Contents

		Page
I. INTRODUCTION	Helmut Schneider	1
II. CONTRIBUTIONS		20
1. Sectoral Effects of Higher Costs of Imported Inputs	Klaus Baumgarten Horst Herberg	20
2. The Dutch Disease or Problems of a Sectoral Boom	Klaus Enders	33
3. Sectoral Transmission and Aggregate Effects of Imported Inflation: An Econometric Input-Output Model for the Federal Republic of Germany	Gustav Dieckheuer Ulrich Müller Helmut Nödinger	53
4. Structural Change, Adjustment Strategies and Employment in an Open Economy: The Case of the Manufacturing Industries in the Federal Republic of Germany	Joachim Wagner Lutz Bellmann	81
5. Entrepreneurial Adjustment in Structural Change - Results from a Survey of Selected Lower Saxonian Industries, 1980-1985	Birgit Gehrke	99
6. Non-Tariff Barriers to Trade - Unsuitable Instruments of an Employment Policy	Horst Herberg Hanno Kühn	113
7. On the Spatial Structure of the World Economy Since World War II	Karin Peschel	129
8. The Extended Moving-Equilibrium Method: A Presentation	Thusnelda Tivig	158
9. Local Stability and Dynamic Aspects in a Two-Country Model with Fixed and Flexible Exchange Rates	Ulrich K. Schittko Bernhard Eckwert	169
10. Alternative Specifications of Asset Markets in Portfolio Balance Models	Thusnelda Tivig	204
11. On Fiscal PONZI Games in a World with Overlapping Generations	Michael Schmid	242
III. APPENDIX		291
1. The Research Programme "Inflation and Employment in Open Economies"	Hans-Jürgen Vosgerau	291
2. Projects		292
3. Publications		295